BURNS TO DEATH WHILE IN MIDAIR

STRIKE YET A REMOTE CHANCE

(Shopmen's Representatives Hold Secret Meetings With S. P. Officials)

(Details of What Transpired at Conference Are Zealously Guarded)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—A full meeting of the advisory board of the Federation of Shop Employees of the Harriman lines was called today to meet in this city next Friday. It is expected that at least thirty-five men will be here to attend the meeting.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—The prospects for a peaceable settlement of the troubles between the shopmen and the officials of the Harriman lines took a more favorable turn today when it was learned that the union leaders had again got into touch with the railroad men. A brief conference between some of the international union officials and E. E. Calvin, general manager and vice-president of the Southern Pacific, was secretly held, and it was also learned that another brief meeting was held with Mr. Kruttschnitt prior to his departure to the East.

The fact that the opposing interests had resumed negotiations was carefully guarded, and neither side would disclose the nature of the proceedings. Not all of the men composing the committee were present at either conference and the meeting with Mr. Calvin and that with Mr. Kruttschnitt were held at different times. It was after 8 o'clock when three of the labor leaders saw Mr. Calvin.

KLINE THE SPOKESMAN.

At the Southern Pacific headquarters it is said that J. W. Kline, spokesman for the labor men, had talked with Mr. Kruttschnitt early in the day over the telephone. Nothing was given out as to the nature of the call or what had taken place.

Mr. Calvin had told the men that he would be glad to meet them at any time before they left, in a friendly way as individuals. There seemed to be a general feeling that the situation had cleared a little, though neither side would disclose the reason therefor.

CALLED TO CONFER.

As a result of today's meeting of the international presidents, the executive committees of the various international unions have been summoned by telegram to San Francisco and a general conference will follow. Although the international officers have received a vote of confidence from the men and are fully empowered to act for them, in regard to their demands, they wish again to canvas the situation.

Seven Drown When Launch Is Run Down

City Councilman and Officials of Water Works Among the Dead.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Sept. 2.—Seven men were drowned in the Maumee, about half a mile north of the Red Can Bury, this morning at 1:30 o'clock, when the 205-foot launch Nemo, owned by Michael Mayer, was struck by the 500-foot freighter Philip Minch. The drowned are:

HARRY BACH, city councilman.

JAMES WISTER, superintendent of water works.

THOMAS PURCELL, master mechanic at the water work plant.

FRED SHANE, secretary of Service Director Cowell.

WILLIAM BLATT, water works inspector.

WILLIAM CARROLL, bookkeeper at the water works.

RUDOLPH LUNKER.

The party was bound for Kelley's Island to fish. Except Michael Mayer, owner of the launch, all met death.

KNOWLAND BACK FROM EAST REPUBLICANS GAIN STRENGTH

CONGRESSMAN JOSEPH R. KNOWLAND, who returned to his home in Alameda last night from the national capital, where he was in attendance at the special session of Congress.

Taft's Coming to California Will Aid the Fair, Says Congressman

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland and wife arrived last evening on the Shasta Limited from Seattle, coming into the Northwest over the Canadian Pacific. Several days were spent in Detroit, where Mr. Knowland attended the national convention of the Loyal Order of Moose as a delegate from Alameda lodge. At this gathering, made up of nearly nine hundred delegates from the various states, he was accorded the privilege of the floor to speak in behalf of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. Much interest was manifested among the delegates in the coming fair. Several days were spent in Canada. The Knowlands will remain in California until the convening of Congress in December.

"The coming visit of President Taft to California for the purpose of participating in the ground-breaking ceremonies for the great exposition," declared Congressman Knowland this morning, "will prove of the greatest possible assistance in calling the attention of the country and the entire world to the San Francisco exposition. During the fight before Congress last winter it was largely due to the President's assistance at the most critical period that victory was secured, and it is his intention to continue to exert every influence within his power that will contribute toward the success of the exposition.

CALLS ON TAFT.

"Oakland is fortunate in securing the attendance of the chief executive for the cornerstone laying of its magnificent new city hall. When I received what I considered to be definite information that the President was to visit California I immediately telegraphed the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, Mayor Mott and the Chamber wired the President and requested me to call at the White House and supplement the invitation, which I gladly did. While the President's time was limited, he consented to come to Oakland in view of the importance of the occasion.

"I find several telegrams from Chas. D. Hilles, the President's secretary, regarding the program for Oakland which I will immediately take up with Mayor Mott.

"I came through Canada on my way home," continued the Congressman, "because I had heard so much of the Dominion during the debate on reciprocity. Canada is a country positive."

Wow! Cupid's Dart Again Hits F.P. 'Affinity' Earle

MONROE, N. Y., Sept. 2.—Recent reports that Ferdinand Finney Earle, of "affinity" fame, had been married again in Europe are confirmed by the receipt of letters from the artist, who is now in Naples with his bride, who was Miss Dorothea Elbert Stewart of Wokingham, England. The marriage took place by special license late in June. Before their return to Earle's country home here, the pair will journey through India, the Far East and Japan, traversing the United States, and taking in the Grand Canyon and Yellowstone Park.

Man With Wooden Leg Hides Fact for 5 Years

ST. PAUL, Ky., Sept. 2.—Hiding for five years the fact that he had a wooden leg, and despondent when discovery of the fact led to his discharge by the railroad company for which he had worked all that time, Louis N. Bagby, 28 years of age, shot and killed himself.

WILL BORE WELLS AT NEWARK

Bay Cities Water Company Has Secured a Large Tract of Land

Artesian Supply to Be Piped Into the City of Oakland

The Bay Cities Water Company has acquired 2500 acres of land at Newark, a portion of the J. G. Fair estate, which promises to be one of the most valuable purchases the corporation has ever made, the consideration being something over $500,000.

The land has been thoroughly prospected and has been found to contain beneath it a vast quantity of artesian water. Wells are to be sunk in the very near future and this water will be piped into Oakland.

The deeds have not yet been passed, but are held in escrow, pending a search of title. As soon as this formality has been completed the work of sinking the wells will be begun and before long Oakland residents will be furnished with artesian water.

OTHER LARGE SUPPLIES.

The deal has just been consummated and is considered an important one in realty circles. The Bay Cities company has recently made other large purchases not only in Alameda county and outlying districts, but also in the Sierra mountains, where it has abundant water sheds.

This is the first time that the territory in the vicinity of Newark has been used for the purpose of supplying water to surrounding communities, but it has been known for a long time that there are subterranean streams of water in that vicinity which flow in great volume, while the water is of the kind especially desirable for domestic purposes.

NO ENGINEERING DIFFICULTIES.

The cost of piping to this city will be less than that from a number of places from which water is now obtained. There will be no engineering difficulties encountered and the piping can be expeditiously accomplished.

This reservation is a guarantee that the company in question is looking far into the future, with the hope that it may be provided with all the necessary resources for the certainty of an overwhelming increase in the population of this city and the demands that will be made upon the supply for industrial concerns all along the bay in all the suburbs for miles around.

Convicted Pastor Cracks Big Rocks

Rev. Hood Line Decides to Work for County to Pay His $50 Fine.

IOLA, Kan., Sept. 2.—Rev. Hood Line, who was convicted in the municipal court here last week of immoral conduct upon charges brought by Mrs. Ella Rees, the woman whom Judge Smeltzer sentenced to work on the streets, decided last night to work out his fine of $50 on the municipal rock pile. Line had previously given notice of appeal to the circuit court.

"I'd rather get out and work than stay in jail pending my appeal," he told the police. He will be put to work today.

Persecution Lands Persecutor in Court

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—For hounding a man on account of a theft committed four years ago, a theft which had been followed by a plea of guilty and suspension of sentence, Police Judge Butts today held William F. Delmage guilty of disorderly conduct and put him under a bond of $1000 for six months. The court ruled that Jacob F. Heitz, who stole $5 worth of meat from Delmage, then his employer, had extorted the sin by four years of upright living, and that Delmage was culpable in having caused Heitz to lose several positions on account of the old offense.

NEW BETROTHAL ANNOUNCED SAYS FAREWELL TO OLD LOVE

MISS MINNIE BRODENSTEIN, who broke her engagement with a prominent dentist who quarreled with her brother and was fined $100 for drawing a dagger. Miss Brodenstein is now betrothed to another man.

Miss Brodenstein, Former Fiancee of Dr. E. W. Scott, to Marry A. Fowle

BERKELEY, Sept. 2.—Dr. Ethan W. Scott, a dentist of South Berkeley, who, while engaged to marry Miss Minnie Brodenstein, had a fight with her brother, E. M. Brodenstein, and was fined $100 therefor, is no longer an engaged man, unless there is another girl in the case. Miss Minnie Brodenstein, the pretty daughter of Mrs. R. S. Brodenstein, 2901 Shattuck avenue, gave formal notice this afternoon that the old affair is off, despite a recent reconciliation. As proof, she announced to thirty girl friends at a "five hundred" party that she is engaged to marry Allen Fowle, manager of the Students' Express Company, next month.

The troubles of Miss Brodenstein, Dr. Scott and the girl's brother, E. M. Brodenstein, who took a hand in the affair, occupied the attention of the police and the justice court for several months during the latter half of 1909. Despite peace disturbances and a street attack, in which the dentist and Brodenstein were involved, Scott and Miss Brodenstein were seen in each other's company a few months ago, and it was believed by some of their acquaintances that it was the happy culmination of the traditional rough course of true love.

But the young woman today put an end to such gossip. Soon after terminating her engagement with Scott, which was said to have been effected by Miss Brodenstein at the command of her brother, she caused the dentist's arrest October 7, 1909, on a charge of disturbing the peace. She complained that Dr. Scott thrust his attentions upon her and tried to walk with her on the street, after their affair was supposed to have ended. Later she caused the dismissal of the case in the justice court. On December 20 of the same year, Dr. Scott was attacked on the street by the girl's brother, and a companion, L. C. Simpson, who are alleged to have used a hammer and fists in the encounter, severely punishing the dentist. Scott drew a dirk and cut Brodenstein on the head. He was tried on a charge of carrying concealed weapons and fined $100 in Judge Edgar's court January 12 of last year. He then caused the arrest of his alleged assailants, who were dismissed by the court. The next development was the marriage of young Brodenstein and his removal to another town. Then Dr. Scott and Miss Brodenstein were again seen together. But the reconciliation was not lasting, which Miss Brodenstein made clear to her girl friends this afternoon.

Death of Mrs. Titus Puzzles the Police

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 2.—Police are puzzled over the death of Mrs. Fred S. Titus, who had not been seen for four days and whose body was found in here yesterday. The body, clad in a nightgown, lay on the floor. Mrs. Titus' husband, who has not been seen here lately, is believed to be in Baltimore.

Steel Firm Official Ends Life in Waldorf-Astoria

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Daniel E. Garrison Jr. of St. Louis, vice-president of the Corrugated Steel Car company of that city, was found dead today in his room at the Waldorf-Astoria, with a bullet wound through his head. The hotel people say he committed suicide. Garrison arrived here yesterday with his father, who is president of the steel car company, and his son, Daniel E. Garrison, third. He was seen alive about 10 o'clock last night, when he went to his room. This morning one of the employees of the

Two Experienced Birdmen of the French Army Killed While Flying

TROYES, France, Sept. 2.—Lieutenant de Grailly of the Eighth cuirassiers, while making an aeroplane flight from this city today was burned to death in midair. The disaster probably was caused by the explosion of the fuel tank. The blazing aeroplane fell with its pilot at Rigny-Nonneuse, almost 25 miles from this city. De Grailly's body was horribly burned and he was probably dead before his body struck. The airship was destroyed by fire.

Experienced French Aviator Falls and Is Instantly Killed

NANGIS, France, Sept. 2.—Captain de Calme, one of the most experienced aviators in the French army, fell with his monoplane while flying here today and was instantly killed. The aviator struck on his head, which was crushed. Captain de Calme ascended from the aerodrome at Trousseau-Noble early this morning with the intention of making a long distance flight. He was a cool and intelligent officer with a scientific knowledge of aviation.

Drops 200 Feet Into a Bay With His Monoplane

BOSTON, Sept. 2.—The first accident in the two years of aviation at Squantum occurred early this forenoon when Joseph S. Cummins fell 200 feet in a Blériot monoplane into Dorchester bay, but managed to drag himself out and swim ashore. He was badly bruised but expects to resume flying next week.

Cummins said afterwards that the sun got in his eyes and before he realized it the monoplane was diving for the water. He was seen to make the plunge and a boat pushed out and took him in. Cummins had worked himself free of his machine and was swimming for shore when picked up.

Taunted Aviator Sails Aloft and Falls to His Death

NORTON, Kan., Sept. 2.—J. F. Frisbie, the Curtiss aviator, was killed by a fall at the Norton county fair last evening. Frisbie met with an accident Thursday, and only went into the air again yesterday when driven to do so by the taunts and jeers of the crowd. Frisbie fell about 100 feet and the

BANDITS GET $2399 IN LOOT

Five Robbers Who Held Up the Southern Pacific Train Still at Large Automobile Used by Thieves in Which to Make Their Escape

REDDING, Sept. 2.—It was learned today that the five robbers who held up a south-bound Southern Pacific express train last night a mile and a half north of Lemoine, Cal., secured $2399 from the safe of the express car. It is believed that the robbers escaped to the mountainous country to the west, as the region is accessible by several good roads, while the outlet to the east is barred by rugged mountains. A posse of twenty sheriff's deputies is in pursuit of the fugitives.

The robbers left the cars at Rainbow, midway between Gibson and Lemoine, having boarded the express car at the former place.
The only damage done to the express car by the explosion which wrecked the safe was to break a window.

This is the third robbery on the Shasta line within a few months.
When the bandits stopped the train at Rainbow, Arthur Hozetto, a passenger going to Lemoine, thought he had reached his destination and got out on the platform when the station was reached. The robbers shot at him and ordered him to get back on the train. He hurriedly climbed on to the cowcatcher where he rode until Lemoine was reached.

IN AN AUTOMOBILE.
The brakeman on the rear car reported here last night that he saw an automobile standing on the wagon road opposite the train. His theory, which lacks verification, is that the bandits used the machine to make their getaway.

DETECTIVES AT WORK.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—It was stated at the offices of the Southern Pacific in this city this morning that the bandits who held up and robbed the train No. 15 at Lemoine last night near Redding had obtained so far as could be determined at this time, only $239.35 for their trouble. The entire detective force of the railroad company in this district has been turned loose on the trail of the bandits.

WILL USE BLOODHOUNDS.

BERKELEY, Sept. 2.—Two Alameda county bloodhounds in charge of Deputy Sheriff Frank A. Deane, this morning for Shasta county to take part in the hunt for train robbers who held up the Southern Pacific train. The hounds, which are the property of Deane, have been at the service of the Berkeley police department for several months. They have been regularly trained and are in good condition for man-hunting. Deane, who is a deputy under Sheriff Barnes, resides at 1903 Haste street. He was requested to take the dogs north by Sheriff Montgomery of Shasta county.

Government Inspectors Capture Chinese, Who Is Rumored to Be Her Murderer

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The unsolved mystery of the murder of Elsie Siegel, which occurred more than two years ago, once more claimed attention today following the arrest of a Chinese by immigration inspectors who last night raided a restaurant in Hoboken. Although the authorities declined to explain what connection, if any, the raid had with the Siegel case, it was reported today that the police had found an important clue.

engine of his machine fell upon him, crushing his left side and chest. He lingered for about an hour before he died.

He was skeptical about the ability of his machine to stand another flight, and announced that he would not take the air yesterday afternoon, but when this statement was communicated to the crowd there was an angry demonstration. The spectators hooted and shouted "faster," and refused to listen to explanation.

Finally Frisbie announced that he would attempt a flight. He ascended from the track without difficulty and attained a height of 100 feet, but in attempting to make a turn the planes tipped and Frisbie lost control. As he came crashing to earth the spectators could see the aviator trying to right the machine, but as it approached the ground one of the wings crashed into a barn and the machine glanced off and struck the earth with Frisbie underneath.

Frisbie's wife, son and little girl were witnesses of the accident. Mrs. Frisbie was prostrated when she saw her husband fall. She bitterly denounced the action of the spectators in forcing her husband to make the flight with a disabled machine.

YOUTH ACCUSED OF THEFT OF MONEY

Paul Mellico, 18 years of age, was arrested by Captain Charles Bock and Patrolman Hunter in Berkeley last night on a felony warrant charging the boy with grand larceny. The warrant was sworn to by Mrs. David Armstrong of the city, who alleged that Mellico stole $80 from under her pillow while employed at the place. The case was put over after Mellico had been arraigned to September 16 for preliminary examination.

METHODIST CLERGY ARE TO ORGANIZE

Association in East Bay Cities to Further Common Interests of Churches.

The following self-explanatory letter has been sent out by Rev. A. J. Hanson, president of the Methodist Ministers' Association of Oakland, Cal., Aug. 30, 1911.

Dear Brother—A highly interesting meeting of the ministers of the several denominations was held at the Oakland Y. M. C. A. under the auspices of the Methodist Ministers' Association, on Monday, August 21, called for the purpose of discussing the "Men in Religion's Forward Movement." The result was so satisfactory that at the conclusion of the session it was unanimously resolved to take steps for the organization of an East Bay Cities Ministerial Association, to be known as the "Men in Religion's Forward Movement." It was further agreed that the promotion of interests common to all the churches and in behalf of the common good, it was further agreed that a meeting for this purpose should be held at the Oakland Y. M. C. A. Monday, September 18, at 8 o'clock, and other ministers of your denomination are cordially invited to attend and participate in the proceedings. The regular meeting of the Methodist Ministers' Association will follow, and the Y. M. C. A. is also invited to attend. Yours in faith and fellowship, A. J. HANSON, Pres., Methodist Ministers' Association.

HANNAH LOWE, PIONEER OF BERKELEY, IS DEAD

BERKELEY, Sept. 2.—Mrs. Hannah Lowe, wife of Dr. W. W. Lowe, a pioneer of Berkeley, died yesterday afternoon at her home, 1712 Cedar street, at the age of 88 years. She had lived in this city for more than a quarter of a century and was a prominent Episcopalian church woman. Mrs. Lowe was the mother of Mrs. W. A. Wallis of this city and of Mrs. R. D. Williams of Pleasanton. She was a native of Pictou county, Nova Scotia.

The funeral will be held Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock with services at All Souls Episcopal chapel, conducted by Rev. W. R. H. Hodgkin.

SECRET MEETINGS MAY PREVENT STRIKE

Representatives of Federation Hold Two Conferences With S. P. Officials.

PERSONS PRESENT DECLINE TO TALK

Tension Loosens in Railroad Circles and Peace Is Probable.

Before taking further decisive steps. This will be done at the general meeting here next week.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—Representatives of the five labor organizations that are involved in controversy with the officials of the Harriman railroad system over the refusal so far to recognize the recently formed federation of S. P. employees, will remain in San Francisco until such time as the issue has been settled one way or the other, according to a statement made this morning by John W. Kline, chairman of the committee that has in charge the affairs of the federation in the present trouble, and who is president of the "Blacksmiths' International Union. He said:

"We are still in conference as a result of the meeting yesterday with Vice-President Kruttschnitt and other officials of the Southern Pacific Company. We will remain in this city for an indefinite period of time, and it is likely that we will call together the general committee of thirty-five representing the various international unions, and with its members present, discuss upon the future attitude and further action of the unions affected."

KLINE'S INTIMATION.

It was further intimated by President Kline, who is acting as spokesman for the federation, that the matter if a strike, or a peaceful settlement of the dispute would be decided in this city.

"We are not waiting here on the railroad officials," he said, "we are merely conferring with an object of bringing about a peaceful settlement of the question. How it will terminate a course none of us can say at this time, but it is certain that the issue will be settled one way or the other while the labor representatives are in this city."

The members of the general committee who will be summoned to the conference are located in Houston, San Antonio and El Paso, Texas; Tucson, Arizona; Alameda, California; Ogden, Utah; Denver, Colorado; Los Angeles, California; Omaha, Nebraska; Portland, Oregon.

KRUTTSCHNITT LEAVES.

Following the unsuccessful outcome of yesterday's conference, the railroad officials in the Flood building, when the union men failed to gain the vital point in the stand they had taken, recognition of the representatives of the federation, the employees' federation, no further meeting was arranged, and this morning at 8 o'clock Vice-President Julius Kruttschnitt left for Chicago, in his special car over the Santa Fe.

So far as the railroad officials are concerned, it was declared on good authority this morning, that the conference was further agreed that the issue would be up to the labor people to make any advances.

A statement in regard to future action by the shopmen may be issued late today by the labor union committee, although Chairman Kline said that it might not be forthcoming until tomorrow, or for several days.

No 30-Day Notice Will Be Given the Illinois Central

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Emphatic denial was made today by the officers of the Illinois Central shopmen's union that a 30-day notice had been given the railroad to abrogate the existing wage agreement. At a meeting of the labor chiefs, it was decided that no notice is necessary. President McClelland of the federation of employees of the Illinois Central Railroad, said:

The report that the grand lodge officers had recommended a thirty-day notice be given the railroad is a desire to confer in regard to our demands is untrue. We consider we have given the railroad sixty days' notice as given in the contract. We set forth these facts and would be considered ample notice to any fair-minded person. At our conference with President Markham yesterday the question was asked whether we would agree to meet the officers of the federation in conference and he replied he would not. In view of this there would be no use of giving any further notice.

HOW MATTER STANDS.

"The situation is this: We have met President Markham, who appears to be the only official of the road with authority in the matter, and he has declined to recognize our federated body. This is the only question involved at present. The meetings of our officers and committees which have been in progress all week while negotiations for peace were being planned have been adjourned and the men have gone home.

"I cannot say when another meeting will be held. The officers of the Federated body are representative of the grand lodge and will remain on the ground, and we are authorized to deal with any question that may arise. I believe the next move will be to be taken by the shopmen on the Harriman lines, in the event that we expect to do everything we can to avoid a strike. We may have a number of conferences with President Markham before we are through, but we have not arranged for any yet."

WITNESS SWEARS HE WAS MISTAKEN FOR BEATTIE

Declares He Was Riding Near Scene of the Murder in an Auto With Woman Who Was Not His Wife

CHESTERFIELD COURTHOUSE, September 2.—Court adjourned at 4:45 p. m. and Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., will take the stand in his own defense on Monday.

CHESTERFIELD COURTHOUSE, Va., Sept. 2.—The defense in the Beattie trial today laid stress on the important points, prior to closing its case with the testimony of the prisoner later today.

In one it attacked the theory of the prosecution that Beulah Binford was the cause of the murder and in the other the testimony of witnesses for the commonwealth who thought they saw Beattie and his wife on the Midlothian turnpike on the night of the murder.

Wm. H. Sampson, an intimate friend of the accused, told on the witness stand of Beattie's relations with Beulah Binford, pointing out that while they were renewed just before Mrs. Beattie was murdered, there was no serious affection on the part of the prisoner, but that it was merely an episode of old-time dissipation.

FORMER CONVICT.

The character of E. H. Nebbitt, who said he saw Paul Beattie on Sunday, July 16, with a shotgun a day after he claims to have transferred his weapon to his cousin, Henry, was attacked today when the prosecution on cross-examination of witness drew forth an admission that Nebbitt was once a convict.

Charles Keselberg of Richmond, the mysterious witness whose discovery yesterday caused confusion for the defense in the trial of Henry Clay Beattie Jr., alleged murderer, to interrupt its examination of witnesses for nearly an hour, came forward today with the information that it was he who was motoring on the Midlothian turnpike and stopped his machine to get water while the woman with him stood on the running board.

The testimony of Keselberg, if accepted as fact, neutralizes the evidence offered by the prosecution in many important respects, because the commonwealth has held that it was Henry Clay Beattie Jr. who was crouching in front of a machine on the turnpike while his wife was standing on the running board and was shot, her fall causing the blood-spots on the road. A crowd of boys coming from a dance at Bonair had testified for the prosecution that they saw a man and woman and offered them help but it was refused.

"It was I," said Keselberg, who is a wholesale butcher, to an Associated Press correspondent before court opened today, "who was on the Midlothian turnpike that night. I saw the crowd of boys pass and they offered me help, which I said was unnecessary. I have hated to give any information about the case to any body, although I read in the papers that the testimony of the boys indicated that it was Henry Beattie and his wife who stopped and that it was the running board of the machine that was with me. I met her on the road and gave her a ride for part of the way. Being a married man I did not wish to volunteer testimony that would put me in a bad light socially, but I told you what several intimate friends and I guess it leaked out to the defense, who summoned me today."

"Did you see any other cars on the road that night?" he was asked.

"I saw three boys go by and another car that was turning very rapidly, and I could not see who was in it. I recognized one of the boys who stopped and asked if I wanted help but I don't think he recognized me. The story the boys have told about seeing a man and a woman in a Chinese is correct, but in the interest of justice I am frank to say the man was not Henry Beattie nor the woman his wife."

Mrs. Nellie Cook, Arrested for Manslaughter, Says Shooting Was Accidental.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—While enjoying an outing along the ocean beach last Thursday, Mrs. Nellie Cook, 610 Howard street, and Arthur G. Davis, 1369 Howard street, entered a shooting gallery to try their skill. Davis shot first. Mrs. Cook then took the rifle and fired and rang the bell. Turning around with the gun in her hand she said, "What I can do." The gun went off, the bullet struck Davis between the eighth and ninth ribs and lodged in his back. This morning he died at his home from complications which set in and Mrs. Nellie Cook was arrested and is being held in the Central Police Station, charged with manslaughter. She declares it was an accident. After Davis had been wounded he was taken to the Park Hospital and later removed to his home. Mrs. Cook went there and nursed him until he passed away.

Davis was a glass worker. His father, W. F. Davis, lives in Mulgrave, Indiana, to which place the remains will be sent. Mrs. Cook is employed in a local shoe factory.

JAMES R. KEENE CRITICALLY ILL

Operation Threatens Man Who Showed Wall Street He Could "Come Back."

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—James R. Keene, who a few days ago had a relapse and is now staying at a nursing home in Marylebone, London, soon may have to undergo an operation, according to a London dispatch. The doctors here, however, have not fully decided whether the operation shall be performed, the dispatch says, and Mr. Keene himself is flatly against such a recourse unless the doctors can convince him that it is absolutely necessary.

HOUSE PAINTER IS HIT BY BERKELEY TRAIN

S. Swanson, a house painter without any permanent residence, was hit by a Berkeley local train this morning about 8 o'clock at the corner of Stanford and San Pablo avenues. He attempted to cross the track in front of the approaching train and became added. At the receiving hospital it was found by Doctor Clark that aside from a number of bruises on the body and possibly internal injuries, Swanson's left leg was so badly crushed that it would have to be amputated just below the knee. Swanson is about 49 years old and penniless. He will be a county charge.

SANTA FE MAKES RATE FOR COLUMBUS DAY

Oakland's celebration of Columbus Day, October 12, will be made the occasion of an excursion rate over the Santa Fe railroad to Oakland from every part of the state on an open rate fare. The tickets will be sold on October 11 to 14, inclusive, good to return at late as October 16, allowing of tourists from all over the state to be present in this city for President Taft's visit here October 14, as well as for the Columbus Day celebration. The local officials of the road feel that the prominence given to Oakland all over the state will be of great benefit to Oakland and vicinity, bringing many people here.

KNOWLAND BACK FROM THE EAST

Congressman and His Wife Return From Washington by Way of Canada.

seeing wonderful possibilities. It has just begun to develop. Crossed from ocean to ocean by one great transcontinental railroad, two more are building. The projectors of these roads would not expend the millions necessary unless they had faith in the rapid development of the country. Canada has an area of 3,729,666 square miles, which is greater than that of the United States, including Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico. The reciprocity campaign is now on in Canada and I was much amused in reading the newspapers opposed to the pact, and in talking with conservatives, the party in opposition, to find that the chief arguments advanced were based upon the grounds that reciprocity would insure to the benefit of the United States and not Canada. In Congress I heard it as strongly argued by those in opposition that Canada would receive the benefit and the United States suffer. The speech of Champ Clark favoring annexation is being worked over time by the opposition, and orators located across the border. The general opinion prevails that reciprocity will triumph at the approaching elections, but the contest is closer than supposed. It is charged that the Canadian Pacific railroad interests are lending assistance to the opposition.

PARTY IS STRONGER.

"When the extra session of Congress was called many Republicans believed that it would prove detrimental to the interests of the party. When Congress adjourned the consensus of opinion among party leaders was that it had been a stronger instead of weaker, and for reasons which I will mention.

"The reciprocity bill was passed, which is popular with the people generally. He attempts to tinker with the tariff only at the expense of the people of the country as the method likely to be followed by the Democratic party in dealing with this most important subject. At the last session of Congress both Speaker Clark and Chairman Underwood of the Ways and Means Committee voted and spoke in favor of a tariff board or commission. Such a body was created and appropriations made for its important work. Congress went farther and instructed the board to report upon the woolen schedule K by December first. While the members of this nonpartisan commission or board are investigating, going into the matter with the greatest care and along scientific lines, it is suddenly determined to revise Schedule K without waiting for this report. No hearings were held, and as has well been said, it was a revision for politics only. The Republican platforms of twenty-two states have declared for a tariff commission, California being among these states. It is the only scientific way of dealing with this important question. With the prospect of continued tinkering, business conditions throughout the West are most unsatisfactory. In December the tariff board will report to Congress, and if their exhaustive investigations develop that Schedule K or any other schedule is too high, affording greater protection than necessary, President Taft will recommend to Congress changes which will be carried out.

FIGHT ON LEMONS.

"An attempt was made to place lemons on the free list at hearings were held. Through the efforts of Senator Perkins and Senator Works the Senate did not agree to the House amendment, but Chairman Underwood announced that when compelled to recede, that another attempt would be made in December to strike the duty from this California industry. Southern California lemon growers declare that if the threat is carried out it will spell ruin to a great California industry in which millions have been invested. Probably oranges, raisins, wines, hops and other articles will follow.

"The important legislation of the extra session in the House now gives California three additional members of Congress; a measure providing for the publication of election returns, as well as to primary elections, acting as applicable also to primary elections, and the final legislation for the admission of Arizona and New Mexico, the last of the territories of the United States."

SAYS HER HUSBAND LEAVES HER ALL ALONE

William H. and Elva Grosskurth, who have resided at Hotel St. Mark for a number of months, are principals in a divorce suit that was instituted in the Superior Court this forenoon by the wife. She alleges that her husband has persistently refused to show her the attention she is entitled to, leaving her alone most of the time and refusing to accompany her anywhere. He came and went as he pleased, Mrs. Grosskurth alleges, and refused to explain his reasons therefor.

'GRAPHOPHONE GIRL' HAS REAL CLAIM TO ORIGINALITY

Miss Adeline Francis at the Bell Theater Tells of Her Novel Idea That She Is Introducing to Vaudeville for the First Time This Year.

ADELINE FRANCIS, "The Graphophone Girl," who is showing vaudeville something new.

"If only the public could appreciate the tremendous amount of energy and drafts upon one's mental equilibrium that it has cost to evolve the novelty that I am introducing to vaudeville this year, then perhaps 'Sister and I' would make more of a furor, theatrically, than we are at present," said Miss Francis. "The Graphophone Girl," at the Bell this week, in a chat yesterday with a TRIBUNE man regarding the very unusual musical novelty she has brought West in a tour of the vaudeville houses under Sullivan & Considine's directions. "But understand me—the public has been very, very appreciative and my act has gone big—in fact, has pulled stronger than I really had anticipated when one considers how different it is from the stereotyped vaudeville singing act. And why shouldn't it, for I have given the best of my time for the past two years in developing and perfecting the idea. Why, in the New York laboratories of the Columbia Phonograph Company, where all my records are made, they came to regard me as a pest—nuisance." And she laughed merrily as she recalled it. "Yes, they did until they discovered what object I had in mind, and then they watched and waited with as keen an interest as myself to observe results and hear the finished product."

"Sister," in Miss Francis' reference, happens to be a beautiful mahogany phonograph made by the Columbia people, and the records used are of Miss Francis' own voice. Her act at the Bell Theater, where she closes a very successful week's engagement to-night, consists in a sort of duo-logue with herself, if the expression may be used, in which one is entertained with Miss Francis' own vivacious personality in song and chatter while her partner is represented by the records on the phonograph, clear and distinct reproduction of her own voice—a sort of dual personality, so to speak—not on the contrary, a bi-voiced phenomenon, in which we hear the natural singing and speaking voice of the artist as she stands before you, together with the mechanical reproduction of Miss Francis' voice in an entirely distinct and separate range, all worked out and tuned to a nicety in a program of song numbers and merriment. One cannot sit and listen to this new idea in vaudeville, which is ever on the alert for novel things, without being impressed with the amount of fatiguing work involved in rehearsing and preparation and the altogether wearing, mental strain necessary to present this idea in its finished state.

"There was so much to consider," continued Miss Francis, "in working out my idea. One had to practically make a human being out of the cold, lifeless instrument. The tempo, the intonation, the unresponsiveness of the mechanism which responded only along purely mechanical lines, were all factors that caused me constant worry and study."

"But at last I succeeded and I think I have only touched on a field that has unlimited possibilities. I am naturally proud of my achievement and tickled to death that everything is going so well and the public taking so fondly to my offering."

AMERICA PRESENTS STEUBEN STATUE TO GERMANY

Congressman Bartholdt Makes Presentation Speech to the Kaiser.

HOPES FOR CONTINUED PEACEFUL RELATIONS

Representative Pays Tribute to Famous General of Fatherland.

BERLIN, Sept. 2.—A replica of the statue at Washington of General Baron von Steuben, as a gift of the American Congress to the German Emperor and the German nation, was presented to Emperor William at Potsdam at noon today by Representative Richard Bartholdt of St. Louis and C. B. Wolfgram of New York, the special American ambassadors appointed for the occasion. The unveiling of the statue was one of the central events of this year's celebration of the anniversary of the battle of Sedan.

Bartholdt, who was introduced to the Emperor by the American Ambassador, Dr. Hill, made the speech of presentation, in the course of which he said: "Your Majesty: By direction of the President of the United States we have come across the ocean to fulfill the purpose of a resolution unanimously adopted by the American Congress providing for the presentation to His Majesty, the German Emperor, and the German people, of a statue of General von Steuben, a great German and erstwhile citizen and hero of two continents, as a gift from the American people. If in the performance of this honorable mission I may be permitted to interpret the sentiment of the people of the United States, I would say on behalf of President Taft's special embassy, that the proffered donation is to be a pledge of peace and amity and a guarantee of the sincerity of the earnest hope, cherished by all Americans, that the efforts of this ceremony may be to draw more and more closely the bonds of traditional friendship and goodwill which, strengthened as they are by the ties of blood, have always so happily united the great German empire with the great republic of the West, the United States of America."

TRIBUTE TO STEUBEN.

"The name of Steuben will ever awaken patriotic memories beyond the ocean. Its bearer was the embodiment of German order and discipline and of that loyalty of which the poet says, if it were not as old as the world, surely a German would have invented it. He was not only an order-giving genius of the Colonial army, but also the indefatigable, though modest, organizer of victories. In just appreciation of his great achievements a grateful people, nobly disregarding national distinctions, honored his memory by the erection in front of the White House in Washington of a monument which is to commemorate his valuable services as well as those rendered by the Germans generally to the cause of American independence. And today's celebration? It is surely a beautiful act of international courtesy, but may we not also interpret the ready acceptance of this statue as a just and generous willingness, on the part of Steuben's old Fatherland and its exalted sovereign, to appreciate and honor those who by their conduct abroad have added lustre to the German name? Millions of hearts on the other side of the Atlantic which throb warmly on account of this dedication will rejoice exultantly at such interpretation."

FOR CONTINUED PEACE.

"From the material to the political and ideal significance of today's act is but a step. The Peace President extends to the 'Peace Kaiser,' under whose reign the phrase, 'The empire is the peace,' has been verified, the hand of friendship for hearty cooperation in the peaceful solution of the great problems of civilization. And are there two other nations which, resting upon the tradition of undisturbed friendship and looking forward to a future of still closer relations, could more justly feel called upon to make common cause in the great humanizing tasks of our time? In the promotion of peace and science and in all tendencies looking to the increased welfare of the people? We live in a time of international conciliation and have come to realize that peaceful development is of more transcendent importance than all that is now dividing the nations, and Germany's forty years of peace is an ample guarantee to America that it requires but an incentive in order to crystallize mutual sympathy into a political fact. May this beautiful ceremony hasten such a happy consummation!"

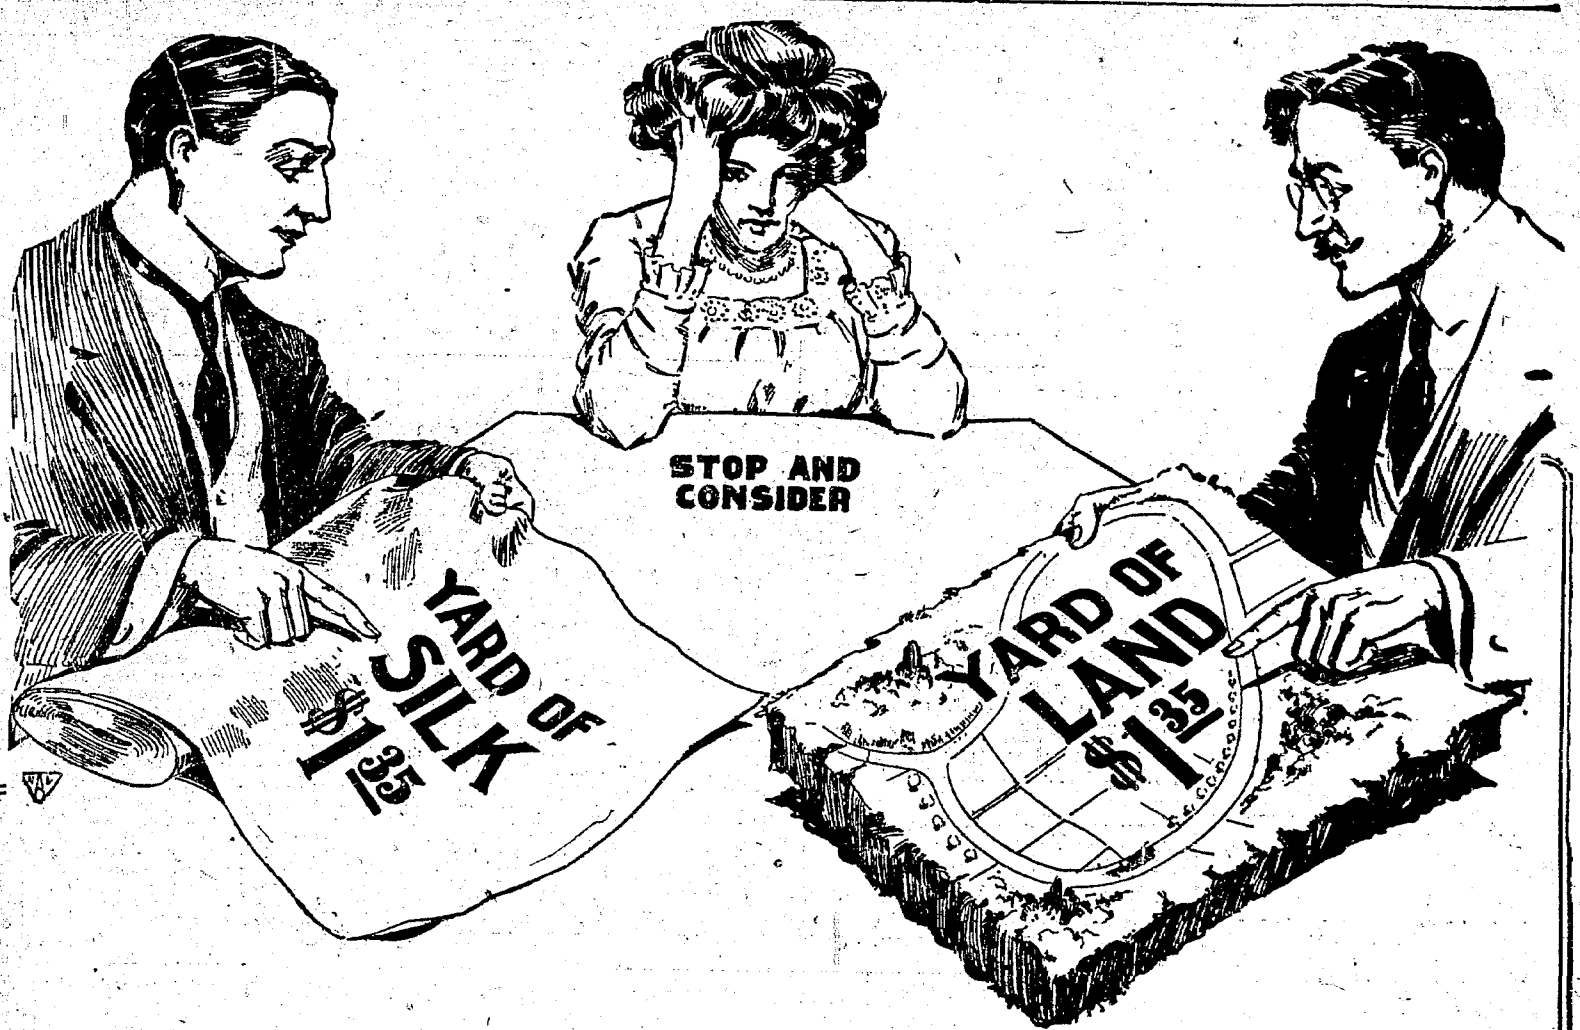

"As special envoy of the President of the United States we have the distinguished honor of asking Your Majesty to accept this statue as a token of the sincere friendship of the American government and people for Your Majesty and the people of Germany."

KING GEORGE THANKS BOY FOR A DRAWING

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Bennie Numerofsky, 12 years of age, has been taken on added importance in the eyes of his friends at the Marks-Nathan Jewish Opera House because of his possession of a letter written at the direction of King George of England.

It does not appear for the fact that his name does not appear in the list of personal friends, the sketch which Bennie made especially for the king might now be hanging among other pictures in Buckingham Palace.

Early in August it occurred to Bennie that the king might accept one of his pictures, and with a photograph of the king as his study, he made a fine reproduction. This he mailed to Buckingham Palace. The following reply has been received: "The private secretary is commanded by the king to thank Mr. Numerofsky for his letter of the 3d inst. and for the drawing sent under separate cover; but to return the same, as it is contrary to rule for his majesty to accept presents from those with whom he is personally unacquainted. The drawing is herewith returned under separate cover."

HE COINED PHRASE 'TAINTED MONEY' FLOATING COURT GREAT SUCCESS

Congregational Pastor Who Would Use None of Rockefeller's Wealth Resigns.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 2.—Dr. Washington Gladden, pastor of the First Congregational church, famous for its opposition to John D. Rockefeller's money for missionary purposes, and known as the originator of the term "tainted money," has written a letter to his congregation announcing his early retirement from active duties as pastor. He yields leadership to his new assistant, Dr. Carl L. Patton, acknowledging that he is at a loss to account for the thinning of his congregation at Sunday services and declaring his belief that a younger man may be able to accomplish what seemed impossible for him to do.

In his letter to his congregation Dr. Gladden said: "I do not attribute the absence of church members in many cases to disaffection. In most cases I believe it is simply a lack of interest. For some reason they have formed the habit of church neglect. Some of them devote their Sundays to pleasure—the ways of Sunday diversion have been multiplied of late. The fact that this is taking place everywhere does not comfort me. This is an alarming thing."

STEAMER FOUNDERS IN ORIENT; MANY MISSING

MANILA, Sept. 2.—The steamer Francisco foundered yesterday on the north side of the island of Negros, and thirteen of her passengers and four members of the crew are missing.

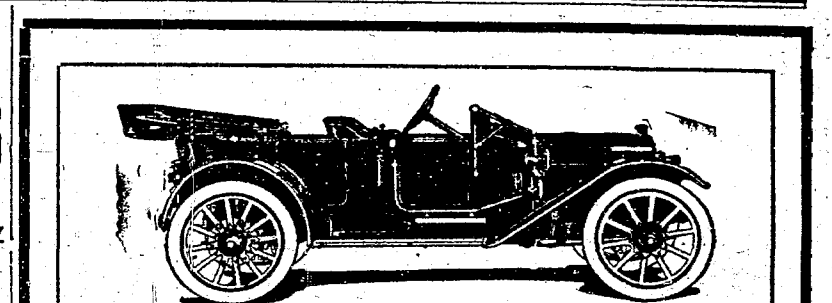

Among those believed to be drowned are a Mrs. Kepler and her two children, members of the family of a Swiss planter in Negros. Eight of the passengers of the Francisco were rescued and taken to Iloilo, in the Isle of Panay.

Judge Lyons Returns to Valdez From Legal Tour of Alaska.

VALDEZ, Alaska, Sept. 2.—Judge Lyons and his floating court have returned to Valdez on the revenue cutter Thetis, concluding an eight weeks' tour to the westward, including a journey to Driscoll Bay. Two grand juries were convened, one at Unalaska and the other at Nushagak, Driscoll Bay. Most of the work done by the court was hearing criminal cases.

Nineteen convictions were had, including a Japanese, who was given a life sentence for the murder of a countryman. Another Japanese was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment for manslaughter, and four were found guilty of sealing in American waters. A negro was given a six-year sentence for arson and six persons were adjudged insane.

The floating court, which was instituted last year, makes one trip a year to the remotest points in southwestern Alaska, clearing up the legal business that has accumulated during the year. Last year the government saved $8000 by sending the court on the tour, and this year a much larger amount was saved. In addition to the saving to the government in mileage for witnesses, this mode of administering justice has proved of great benefit to witnesses and other litigants, who otherwise would lose many weeks' making the long journey to the seat of the court.

BLAME PLACED ON INSPECTOR OF HULLS

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 2.—The court of marine inquiry has handed down its findings in the inquiry regarding the foundering of the steamer Sechelet of Becher Bay on March 24 last, with a loss of twenty-six lives, saying that the vessel was not fitted for the Victoria-Sookeys run and that Inspector of Hulls John C. Kinghorn should not have given permission of the vessel to take that run. It is held that the route should be classed as "within the inland waters" and that a grave error was made in such classification.

WINS AT TENNISMcLoughlin Will Be Challenger of Larned for Championship.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 2.—The challenge of William A. Larned of Summit, N. Y., for the national lawn tennis championship will be Maurice E. McLoughlin of San Francisco, who defeated Beale G. Wright of Boston today in the finals of the all-comers' tournament, 3 sets to 1. The scores were: 6-4, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2.

Except in the second set and for a few games in the third set McLoughlin was always master of the situation.

The play started out briskly. Wright taking the first game and allowing McLoughlin but one point while the Californian retorted by capturing the second at love. After Wright had taken the third McLoughlin seemed to have settled down to his game. His accurate places and sharp drives kept the former champion constantly chasing over the court and the next four games went to McLoughlin, two of them at love.

MADE GOOD RALLY.

Later, the games five to two against him, Wright made a desperate effort to save the set, taking the eighth game at love and also getting the ninth. His attempt to bring the set to deuce, however, failed. McLoughlin quickly taking the tenth game and the set.

The games in the second set saw-sawed until they were three all, the second and sixth, both of which Wright won, going to deuce. Wright quickly took the seventh and eighth. McLoughlin brought the games to five by taking the ninth, but Wright allowed him only one point in the last game and took the set.

The third set was the hardest fight of the match, starting off with a game which Wright won. McLoughlin then gained a lead of 5-3, but this did not prevent McLoughlin from tying the match, and finally taking the set at 7-5. Wright showed his exhaustion at the end of this set, McLoughlin running out the last game at love. The brilliant comeback made short work of the fourth and final set.

An analysis of the points shows 137 for McLoughlin to 116 for Wright.

MAN KILLED ON
OCEAN SHORE ROADLaborer Is Ground to Death
Beneath Wheels of a Work Train.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—While attempting to escape a landslide at the mouth of the Ransome tunnel on the Ocean Shore road near Half Moon Bay, this morning about 9 o'clock, two laborers stepped upon the track and were struck by a rapidly moving work train. George Zorakis, 39 years old, was killed instantly, and the other laborer, Thomas Murray, was seriously injured. The cause of the landslide was a large rock which fell from the cliff above the tunnel. The man who was killed was not identified.

The two men were working with a gang near the mouth of the tunnel when a warning was shouted that the earth was slipping and was about to crush them. They all ran for the entrance. Zorakis and the man who was killed stepped directly upon the track and before the train could come to a standstill the engine was down upon them.

by Mysterious Fire Soon
After Midnight.

ELMHURST, Sept. 2.—The house occupied by W. Friedman at 5734 East Fourteenth was destroyed by fire at 1 o'clock this morning. The family is away and has not been located.

The Elmhurst and Fremont fire departments did all they could to save the house, which was a four-room cottage owned by S. Baldwin. The origin of the fire is a mystery to the police and fire department.

The family, which is composed of three small children and Friedman, had been occupying the house a short time, coming from 14 Valencia street, San Francisco. He is a wall-painter and house painter, located at 379 Bartlett street, San Francisco.

PARISH FETE TO BE GIVEN ON PICTURESQUE GROUNDS

Parishioners of St. Jarlath's Church who will preside over booths at the garden party and picnic to be given Monday in Fruitvale.

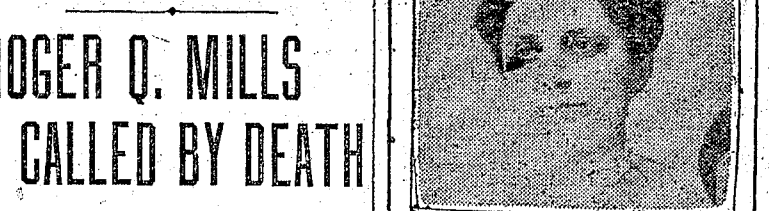

MISS MABEL PRATT

In the picturesque grounds of the Diamond home of Upper Fruitvale, the parishioners of St. Jarlath's church will give a garden party and picnic September 4, where the women of the church will preside at the various booths. During the day there will be racing and games of all description for the young and old.

For many weeks the representatives of auxiliaries of the church have been perfecting arrangements for the celebration, which will be the most pretentious ever undertaken by the young parish.

There will be races for boys under 14 years of age and for girls under 15 years. Numerous attractions for the entertainment of the patrons will constitute the program, which is in charge of the general committee, headed by Mrs. M. J. King, president; Mrs. J. McNamara, vice-president; and Mrs. R. Murray, treasurer.

The refreshment concessions for the fete have been divided as follows: Sandwiches, Mrs. M. J. King; ice-cream, Mrs. J. E. Burns; soda and lemonade, the Misses Delacour; coffee and cake, the Misses Gotti; games and races, Thomas Murray and Miss Mabel Pratt.

ROGER Q. MILLS
CALLED BY DEATHFormer United States Senator
From Texas Dead at Age of 79 Years.

CORDICANA, Tex., Sept. 2.—Former U. S. Senator R. Q. Mills of Texas died at his home here today.

Roger Quint Mills was born in Todd county, Kentucky, 79 years ago. When a young man he moved to Texas, starting out as a drug clerk and studying law at night until admitted to the bar. He served through the Civil War in the Confederate Army and commanded regiments under Generals Bragg, Johnston and Hood.

His Congressional career began in 1872 as representative-at-large from Texas, followed by four terms as Congressman from the former fourth district of Texas. He was elected United States Senator in 1897, serving until 1909, when he resigned and was succeeded by Charles A. Culberson.

Case of Man Who Was Granted New Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—In dismissing the case of E. W. Emonds, convicted of defrauding Mrs. M. E. Hurst of $500.00 in a fake mining scheme, at the request of the district attorney this morning, Superior Judge Wm. J. Lawlor took occasion for a fling at the Appellate Court, which had granted Emonds a new trial on technicalities.

Owing to the fact that one witness of the prosecution had died and that others were at present missing, the district attorney made a motion that the case be dismissed. In granting the case Judge Lawlor said, "There is no doubt of the defendant's guilt, he will go free. This case aptly illustrates how justice is frequently defeated by the refinement of appellate decisions."

IS STRUCK OVER HEAD
BY UNKNOWN MAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—Charles Ferrante, 1442 Kearny street, was standing on Filbert street, near Montgomery, this morning about 10 o'clock when an unknown man approached him and struck him over the head with a blunt instrument. Ferrante fell to the sidewalk. His brother Frank, who was near by, drew a revolver from his pocket and fired two shots at the fleeing man, neither of the shots taking effect. Charles was taken to his home, where physicians were called who treated him for a severe wound of the scalp. He said he did not know the man who hit him, but believed that it was an attempt at robbery and that he could identify his assailant.

Dismiss the Indictments Against Magnate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—A motion made today in the Superior Court to set aside the indictment against A. K. Detweiler, charging him with bribing, was denied by Judge William P. Lawlor. He set September 30 as the date for the trial of the case. In doing so, the court refused to abide by the precedent set by the Appellate Court in ordering the cases against Patrick Calhoun, Thornwell Mullally, T. L. Ford and William M. Abbott dismissed. Detweiler was indicted by the grand jury in March, 1907, for alleged bribery of the old school department in the wall of school telephone franchise. He was at that time president of the Home Telephone company. In commenting on the latter Judge Lawlor said that inasmuch as Detweiler had remained silent for nearly three years until Big Jim Gallagher, one of the witnesses of the prosecution against him, had left the country, his case was different from that of the others mentioned, and he accordingly ordered that it be set for trial.

OLDER OFFICERS TO HAVE CHARGE OF RECRUITING

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—The general staff is dissatisfied with the recruiting done by Adjutant-General Ainsworth's corps. It is asserted that though the nation now in vogue the army is not able to have more than fifty men in a company in the Philippines. As a rule, the Adjutant-General has sent young officers on recruiting service. The general staff officers believe that should older officers be placed in the recruiting service, they would make reports better results would come about. Therefore, it is planned to put one Colonel in charge of each of the corps, one of which is Fort McDowell, on Angel Island. However, the old officers will be assigned is not yet known, but the plan will be put in operation in a short time.

BIG WIRE TAPPING
SWINDLE AT SALT LAKE

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 2.—An alleged wire tapping swindle is said to have its center in this city, with branches leading to San Francisco, Los Angeles and other points, was uncovered when Sheriff Sharp and a number of Pinkerton detectives arrested De Witt E. Lowe, manager of the Lowe Brokerage Company; E. F. May, J. F. McAllister and R. L. Scott, telephone operators, and Ray Perkins, a telephone installer. The wire tapping was done by means of an electric vibrator and telephone transmitter placed in the wall of the basement of a building in which is located the offices of Badger Brothers. Through this arrangement the sound of the telephone instrument in Badger Brothers' was made available for transmission to outside points. The wire which it is claimed was tapped was the leased wire of D. E. Hutton & Co. from New York to San Francisco.

FORMER ASSOCIATE OF
D. O. MILLS PASSES AWAY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 2.—Major John Philip Bacon, who died at the age of 72 years, was a former associate of D. O. Mills, who died at his home in this city yesterday of apoplexy, aged 72 years. During the Civil War, Major Bacon was aide-de-camp to General John T. Morgan, afterward United States Senator from Alabama. He was at one time private secretary for Flood & O'Brien of San Francisco.

Bacon was connected with Darius Ogden Mills in constructing a railroad to the Pacific Coast. He is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Jessie Cunningham of Vacaville, Cal.; a brother, Rear-Admiral Albert W. Bacon, U. S. N., retired, of Santa Barbara, Cal., and a sister, Mrs. Alice Blanton of Frankfort, Ky.

WARNING POSTED
BY NIGHT RIDERSReads: "If You Don't Want to Be Killed, Don't Work
This Tramway."

JACKSON, Ky., Sept. 2.—"If you don't want to be killed, don't work this tramway any more." A warning nailed by night riders on a tree on the farm of J. Brown on Laughner Creek, Morgan county, has put a stop to extensive timber operations following the destruction of two tramways at that place. The warning is the outcome of a feud between several families over a line dividing timber rights on their farm.

Four men were killed in the feud last month. A general outbreak is looked for at any time.

$72,000 WORTH
PAPER INVOLVEDWork of Segregating It in the State Printing Office Ordered.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 2.—The State Board of Control today ordered experts to segregate stock in the State printing office warehouse so that $72,000 worth of paper and bindery supplies which the State has refused to accept may be separated from the remainder of the stock. The stock is being done at the direction of Governor Johnson.

The $72,000 worth of stock was furnished by the Zellbach Paper Company, H. S. Crocker & Company, George D. Graham Company and T. J. Shattuck Company. The bills for this paper when presented to the Board of Control by State Printer Shannon were held up and sent to Governor Johnson with a letter to the effect that the State was receiving cheap goods at excessive prices.

OPENS DOOR TO FACE TO BURGLARLetter Carrier Is Seized by the Throat by Thief Who Makes Escape.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 2.—Seized by the throat at the entrance of the front door of his house, 1717 Chestnut street, at 1 o'clock this morning, E. G. Crutchfield, a San Francisco letter carrier, grappled with a burglar and was thrown to the floor before his outcry brought neighbors to his assistance. The thief, who had entered the house some time during the night by forcing a window with a jimmy, made his escape.

Florence McDonald, Black and Willing went to the call of neighbors, but could find no trace of the fleeing thief. The fact that there was nothing taken from the house leads to the belief that the burglar had gained entrance only a few minutes before 1 o'clock, when Crutchfield returned.

HANDS OF COURTFather of Bride Causes His Arrest on a Charge of Perjury.

FRESNO, Sept. 2.—Lesandro Feliz, who eloped from Tulare with Miss Frieda Jacobson, was today held to answer at the Superior Court on a charge of perjury preferred by the girl's father, a wealthy vineyardist. The father charges that the girl is under 18 years of age and that Feliz swore that the girl was of age. The prisoner's bonds were fixed at $2000. The girl has admitted that she led the bridegroom to believe that she was over eighteen.

JUDGMENT GIVEN
P. S. & W. COMPANYIs Awarded $7925 in Suit Against Boschke Dredging Company.

Judgment was entered last yesterday afternoon by Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe of San Bernardino county, sitting in the Superior Court, for $7925 in favor of the Pacific Shipyard and Ways Company, in the latter's suit against the Boschke Dredging Company for labor and material furnished in the construction of a dredger. The jurist intimated that he did not consider the award just, saying that the law did not permit him to go into the facts, and that the law presumes that a person entering into a contract understands its full meaning and intent. The decision would not have been the same, he intimated, had it been possible for the court to pass solely upon the merits of the claims.

The dredger in controversy was invented by A. Boschke, who made the first survey of Oakland harbor as a civil engineer of the war department at Washington and the invention was practically perfected at the time of Boschke's death. During his lifetime his dredging company was involved in a number of law suits and after his death his heirs tried to break his will, which kept them from control of the invention, but failed.

H. J. WILLEY HERE

C. Founder, Visits Old
Home in Berkeley.

BERKELEY, Sept. 2.—H. J. Willey, son of Rev. Samuel J. Willey, one of the founders of Oakland College School, from which the State University grew, is visiting his father and brother, H. J. Willey, in this city, which he left thirty years ago. Willey was surveyor-general of California under Governor Stoneman's administration. Today he is renewing old acquaintanceships in the university community. The Willey family home on Dwight Way, near College avenue, which was the first residence, outside of farm houses, erected in Berkeley forty-three years ago. Willey, who is consulting engineer for a New York mining concern, came to California to examine iron mining property in Eldorado county, and decided to come on to Berkeley for a few days' visit.

After graduating from the Oakland College, Willey entered the United States Coast Geodetic Survey under Prof. George Davis.

ELECT OFFICERS
FOR SIX MONTHSProgress and Prosperity Committee Holds Important Session.

The progress and prosperity committee of the chamber of commerce, at its regular meeting last night elected officers for the coming six months. They were John B. Jordan, proprietor of the Athens hotel, chairman; Earl D. White, vice-chairman; Charles F. Cole, secretary, and Hubert G. Vischer, treasurer.

Contrary to expectations there was no contest for the office of chairman, the only nominee being Jordan and Fred E. Reed, who once declined the nomination, and Jordan was unanimously elected. The latter will have the appointment of the executive and other sub-committees of the committee and will make known his choice at the next meeting. Following his election Jordan announced that he had several plans in mind for the consideration of the committee during the next few months. The body is the special body organized to protect the city and as Jordan has in the past been one of the leaders in its activities, his administration is expected to be fruitful one.

Short booster talks were given by other newly-elected officers of the committee, including the salient, and also by Irving Kahn, who presides from the chairmanship of the body.

COMPTROLLER APPOINTED FOR THE EXPOSITION

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—Allan Pollock was appointed comptroller of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at a meeting of the board of directors yesterday. In this capacity he will have general supervision over all employees of the exposition and will keep watch over disbursements.

Pollock is a well known and popular resident of this city. Of Scotch birth, he came to the Coast with his brother and two sisters when a very young man and settled in San Diego. He and his brother owned, and conducted the "San Diego Union" for a number of years, and when they sold out moved up to San Francisco.

Here he occupied various positions. He was in the hotel business, being assistant manager of the Palace for ten years, and when the San Francisco opened Pollock was its first manager.

For four years he was general manager of the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company. Shortly after the 1905 election Pollock became connected with the Thompson-Starrett Construction Company of New York, organizing a branch in this city and taking a prominent part in the work of reconstruction.

For two years Pollock served the city as supervisor in the Taylor administration. At the end of his term he declined to seek re-election.

FORBIDS MEETINGS
AGAINST LEGISLATION

HELSINKI, Finland, Sept. 2.—Government of Finland has forbidden the holding of meetings to protest against the Russian government's proposed legislation cutting off the Kivine and Nykiska parishes from the Province of Viborg and adding them to the province of St. Petersburg. The measure has aroused the indignation of the Finns, and is regarded by them as the first step in the partition of Finland. Serious rioting occurred last night at Viborg, where the police broke up a labor meeting. For three hours 8000 persons gathered on the streets in the front of the meeting hall and battled with the force of mounted and foot police. A dozen persons were wounded and a number arrested.

GOOD NATURED
HUSBANDS GRILLEDOrgan of Women's Clubs Has Something Pungent and Direct to Say.

The easy-going, good-natured American husband is put on the grill and broiled to turn in this week's issue of the "Federation Courier," the official organ of the California, Nevada and Utah Federations of Women's Clubs.

The article, which will create a sensation on the entire Pacific Coast, is written by Miss Bertha Monroe Rickoff of Woodmont Park, and prominent on both sides of the bay in club, literary and social circles.

Miss Rickoff's contribution to the "Courier" appears under the inconspicuous caption "The Old Order Changeth." It is a stirring appeal for equal suffrage for women, in trenchant style she writes of evils arising from a lack of equal suffrage, and pleads: "Give women less generosity, and so-called chivalry; give them the discipline of power and responsibility."

WIFE IS HIS PRIDE.

"The American husband is at once the most chivalrous, the most generous and the most foolish human being extant," writes his wife, Rickoff, in her "Courier." "His chief glory and weakness is his admiration for and his pride in his wife."

"He loves to see her traveling about Europe showing her social graces and his diamonds to the crowned heads, and learning about tapestries and china that he can never hope to understand."

"She absorbs a few little vices like cigarettes and bridge-gambling. She comes home craving week-end parties and an attendant cavalier, foreign or domestic, who motors with her or takes her to the theater when her husband is too busy to do so. He spends these years while she is abroad in his home city, his wife and father, finding his home in a club and his children housed at school."

"It is not surprising that she finds her sympathies clinging to the Philanderer, while he sees a young woman besides his wife every day at the typewriter who is more educated, more independent and perhaps more womanly. Hence the inevitable divorce."

PARASITE IS CREATED.

"Such men have been responsible through their absurd generosity for the creation of a class of women demanding every indulgence and devoid of moral responsibility. She is a parasite, disintegrating the home and destroying the old ideals."

"But while the eyes of many are fastened on the newspapers, championing her cause, there is a large army, silently gathering its hosts for the cause of the real American womanhood and motherhood."

"These include the teachers, the college women, the club women, the business women, the working women, all of these, the American youth, both men and girls, the future fathers and mothers."

"The old American woman, for she is old and might as well know it, was taught that the truth was:

"Like a rose shut in a book in which a pure woman must not look."

"The young woman has looked and is not hurt in the least. She is innocent but ignorant."

"The foolish American man is afraid that in struggling through business and civic conditions a woman will become burdened with too much care, and enter a province both dangerous and disagreeable."

FEELS BURDEN OF YOKE.

"But she is bearing already the burden of these conditions and her participation in government will simply be lifted from her own shoulders a yoke already ready there. She will prove her taxes are misappropriated, and her daughters are victims of the 'open town,' her babies drink impure milk, her family is underfed because of the beef trust."

"As a property owner or business woman she may see her interests jeopardized. She may see her property encroached by civic action, her class discriminated against, and what is her redress? She may weep over the moral and physical disasters overtaking those dear to her, but she will have the power to right the conditions which caused those disasters. She has the privilege of an appeal to the masculine voters."

PRETTY, BUT NOT BUSINESS.

"This may be pretty, but it is not business. For her appeal goes in business or in government? Look at the daughter of yours. A trained chemist, an educated phenologist, a scientific housekeeper, a future mother."

"Give her protection; not the protection of your power, you who are mortal and must go at an early call; not the protection of a man who may prove worthless and desert her at any moment, but the protection of a moral responsibility, a legal power that no man can take from her."

"Make her confession to the younger American womanhood, to the magnificent California womanhood, the last crest of the wave of evolution, that she may receive the world in 1915 hand in hand with her brother."

'BLIND TOM' DUNN JAILED
ON CHARGE OF VAGRANCY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—"Blind Tom" Dunn, who has begged on the streets of San Francisco and other cities for twelve years, was arrested yesterday morning near Fourth and Market streets on a charge of vagrancy. Search revealed the fact that Dunn had $142 in currency and a check for $100 in his pocket, and besides had a bank book indicating that he had a generous deposit in a Los Angeles bank.

"I'm no vagrant," said Dunn at the Central Emergency Hospital yesterday. "I've got money, although I'm a beggar. I have a bank account, and I have a money I have, but it was because I was stricken blind."

MRS. MARY L. NAGLE
DIES AT AGE OF 70

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 2.—Requiem papers were issued by Governor Johnson today for the return of Harry Melaky, a parole breaker who is under arrest in Salt Lake. Melaky was sent to prison from San Francisco on a burglary charge, paroled and fled to Utah. Detective Murphy of the San Francisco police force went after him.

Oakland and the Exposition.

Something like a year ago an auxiliary committee of ten business men of Oakland was appointed to work in conjunction with the executive committee of the Panama-Pacific Exposition. This committee was appointed to take charge of promotion work on this side of the bay and to assume the direction of all affairs connected with the exposition. Also the committee was named to give Oakland representation in exposition matters.

But so far as our information goes this committee has never held a meeting, has never even organized. It has done nothing as a body whatever its members have done individually. Yet such men as H. C. Capwell, F. M. Smith, Wickham Havens and James Y. Eccleston are members of it. None of these men are lacking in public spirit or interest in the success of the Panama-Pacific Exposition. But for some singular reason they have made no apparent effort to put life into the committee and make it an active factor in promotion work. Probably very few in Oakland remember that such a committee was ever appointed. It has certainly never given any evidence of existence.

Would it not be a good idea for this committee to get together and do something—dissolve if nothing else? The men composing it are not in the habit of letting enterprises in which they once engage die a-borning. They are usually up and doing when there's anything to be done that is worth while. If there is nothing for the committee to do, would it not be the correct thing for a meeting to be held and a graceful exit made from a stage that has seen no action? That, at least, would give people something to talk about, and would excite interest in what Oakland proposes to do toward helping out the great exposition. It would start something.

What we desire to convey is that Oakland should get a move on in the matter of exposition promotion. The people of this city are deeply interested in the success of that great enterprise, and they should get in and help—show their interest and their willingness to co-operate with the managers across the bay. Let it not be said that Oakland did not come to the front and do her part in the exposition enterprise. Everybody is willing to do something, but very few know what to do or how to take hold. By meeting and counseling together enthusiasm will be stimulated and we will learn how to proceed, where to lay hold, what can be done generally to assist in making the exposition a success. Moreover, it will show that we are alive on this side of the bay and in readiness to lend a hand. It will advertise Oakland's public spirit and bring the citizens of this town in more fraternal sympathy with the citizens of San Francisco. That much alone will be a help.

Certainly some action should be taken. If nothing more, the committee can meet and drink to the success of the exposition. That will at least start talk. Does anybody second the motion?

Naval gunners had no trouble in sending thirteen-inch shells through the armor of the old battleship Texas at a distance of seven miles. It is said that the rifles used have an effective range of ten or twelve miles and can be aimed with reasonable accuracy for that distance. When high power guns can pierce the armor of battleships at a distance of seven or eight miles it is evident that land fortifications of the modern type cannot be successfully attacked by sea. The land battery can knock the heaviest armored battleship to pieces miles out at sea, while the danger from torpedoes and sunken mines will deter big warships from coming close inshore. Aeroplanes increase the danger of a squadron attacking harbors and other points on shore. In other words, the effectiveness of the navy is very much diminished in aggressive warfare. The bigger and costlier the battleship, the greater the danger to which she is exposed and the less effective she is in attack.

Out in the fields, less than a hundred miles from Oakland, water-melons are selling at $3 per carload—less than a cent apiece. In Oakland they are sold by retail at from twenty to thirty cents apiece. Who gets the difference between what the consumer pays and the farmer gets? And why?

The Stockton Record (Lissner-Rowell League) says Californians will give President Taft a hearty welcome when he comes out here to lay the cornerstone of the Panama-Pacific Exposition, but expresses the hope that he will not ask who is California's choice for President. Of course, he will not ask any such question. He does not have to ask. California is for Taft and doesn't care who knows it. The California delegation to the National Republican convention will be for Taft, and California's electoral vote will be for Taft. However, the President's visit is non-political and his welcome should have no tinge of partisanship. Californians will be glad to receive and entertain a distinguished guest and will not obtrude politics in their hospitality.

Mark Twain's Birthplace.

A fellow townsman of Mark Twain and a great admirer of the author of "Tom Sawyer" has bought the old Clemens homestead in Hannibal, Missouri, and presented it to the town. It is somewhat remarkable that Mark Twain never manifested any particular affection for his birthplace and never gave it much of his personal attention after he became a distinguished man of letters. He laid the scene of several of his stories in and around Hannibal, but he evinced no love for the place. He used it and its people as literary material in "Tom Sawyer," "Huckleberry Finn" and "Pudd'nhead Wilson," but nowhere did he give any evidence that he cherished it in fond memory and retained for it a feeling of loyalty. The truth is, Mark Twain was rather ashamed of the town of his birth. It was not in his childhood and is not now an attractive place. It was in his boyhood days a tumble-down sort of a river town with an archaic population and no enterprise. Everybody knew everybody else, and in after years Mark Twain felt a disgust for the indiscriminate and often tactless "friendliness" of some of the natives. His writings harked back to the scenes of his youth, but not his affections. He never cared to visit Hannibal after he left it to go to Nevada. He gave the town no tokens of his affection, and it has been left to an admirer to present to Hannibal a memorial of her most distinguished son.

Again Alameda county has won the first prize for the best county exhibit displayed at the State Fair. However, this will occasion no surprise, for Alameda county long ago contracted the habit of taking the first prize and is holding fast to her record. No region of similar extent in the world can show such an infinite variety of fruit and vegetable products, and no other county in the State can show so many manufactured products. Which is to say that Alameda county leads the industrial procession as well as the alphabet.

Colonel Irish says he was playing politics when he introduced a woman suffrage resolution in the Iowa Legislature forty years ago. Not a few are playing politics in advocating woman suffrage now.

Self-Protection Is No Offense Under the Law

—PHILADELPHIA TIMES.

The Lark and His Enemies.

The Stockton Mail denies that the Democratic party shares Assemblyman Stuckenbruck's hostility to the meadow lark. But it is responsible for Stuckenbruck, and the Mail will probably support him for re-election. The Mail says the lark is a Democrat, but the statement is contradicted by the virtues which our Stockton contemporary ascribes to the bird. Says the Mail:

"He has every symptom. He is lovely and of good report; he is industrious and honest; he is opposed to landlordism and takes the unearned increment when he finds it, thus proving himself both a forager and a philosopher; and when he has considered his tummy and the fullness thereof he charms the ear with his rich full-throated song, the sweetest melody that floats through the sunlit air. In addition, he takes a drink when he feels like it. Sage, philosopher, friend—an excellent husband, a cheerful, courageous purveyor of life's good things, and hating—we suspect—a Holy Roller; this bird is the Democrat of the fields. Luck to him, and confusion to his enemies!"

This eulogy may help explain why Assemblyman Stuckenbruck desires to outlaw the lark, but it does not explain why the Mail stands up for Stuckenbruck. The persistence of Stuckenbruck is an evidence of the prevailing political disorganization, the queer concatenation of unrelated ideas and foolish notions. The meadow lark and every other innocent, joyous and virtuous thing is in peril as long as freaks like John Fuzziwig Murray and Assemblyman Stuckenbruck are leaders in a great political party. The war on the lark is a symptom of political softening of the brain, a proof that the Democratic party is afflicted with paresis and parasites.

It is awful, Mabel, but it is true. It is more discouraging than Holy Rolling in the Republican party and nearly as bad as dogday journalism at the State University. It is a case of epilepsy on one side, and paresis on the other. Let us hope, however, that the lark will survive the plot against his safety and peace of mind. His free life, gay philosophy and cheery song are a welcome relief from the antics of puddle-witted reformers and political bores. As long as he sings in the fields there will be a silver lining to every cloud, sunshine in the world, hope in some hearts and solace for every bruised spirit. The lark is no humbug. He is an honest and happy marauder who pays for his keep, killing half a dozen pernicious insects for every grain of wheat he steals. He is a beneficent grafter, and holds in detestation hypocrites and bogus reformers. Summer journalism he holds in scorn and contempt and gives Hon. John Fuzziwig Murray the scorn and contempt of a merry rogue. Heaven bless him. But what are we going to do with such mental and political misfits as the blacksmith of Acampo?

The San Francisco Bulletin now has another object on which to pour out its sympathy. It has long been in the habit of railing at the law and berating its ministers. For some time it has been allowing a two-term convict the use of its columns to express his reprobation of courts, jails, sheriffs and prison officials. Now the editor of the Bulletin has another opportunity to befriend another person of the same kidney. A youth who had just finished a two-year term in San Quentin asked a stranger the price of a bed, claiming to be penniless and friendless. The stranger allowed him to share his own room and bed, and his guest showed his gratitude by getting up early in the morning and robbing his host. The enterprising young convict has been rearrested and will doubtless be given another term in prison. His plight will no doubt excite the indignation of the editor of the Bulletin, who seems to have a natural affinity for thieves and ingrates.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

Two sharpers were working the shell game at the race track yesterday when Deputy Sheriff Keller espied them. The men saw him and politely invited him to try his luck at the little "joker." Keller was willing to take them up on the proposition, but instead of taking cash out of his pocket he pulled out a pair of handcuffs and clapped them on the wrists of the gamblers and then took them to the county jail.

The Mechanics' Fair in San Francisco is in full blast. All the exhibits are in place, and the great exhibition has never been more attractive than it is this year. It continues to be a popular place of amusement and is thronged all the time. Six per cent interest will be guaranteed on the money put into a first-class hotel on this city. In all probability the investment would pay half as much more. Who will give Oakland a hotel in which the city can have a pride?

The new Unitarian church is rapidly nearing completion and will be finished in time for Mr. Savage's lecture next Friday evening.

SERMONS IN BRIEF

By MONROE DREW,
Pastor of the San Leandro Presbyterian Church.

"The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright."—Bible.

"How to win" is the unuttered cry of the human heart. Few gain success by toll alone, as this is an age of talk. It is so easy to talk that some rarely stop even during sleep. The talker whose mind is well stored with good words which are so arranged in his mind that he can always use the right word is a success.

The sale of a shoe lace or an air-ship, a loaf of sand or a city block, is accomplished by talk. The agent who wins uses knowledge aright, i. e. says the right thing at the right time in the right way.

Talk brings pleasure or war. The wise man said, "A soft answer turneth away wrath." To be safe in war or the true art of self-defense is not in the use of boxing gloves, but in returning a kind answer.

The true index of character is not told by the bumps on the head alone nor the lines in the hand, but by words. "From the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh," said the divine teacher. The one who offends not in word is the perfect man.

Words are mental pictures which we hold before the vision of our friends. "Words fitly spoken are like apples of gold in pictures of silver." Make your words such golden pictures that they will inspire the hearts of your hearers for better living, kinder thinking, and the use of knowledge aright.

SIDELIGHTS ON WASHINGTON

Pink shirts, cerise neckties, blue polka dot socks, pongee jackets, and white duck trousers have transformed "Gum Shoe" Bill Stone, Senator from Missouri, into Washington's best example of sartorial splendor. The dress which the senator wears has been so exquisite that it is the daily curiosity of the Senate to discover whether he is wearing his russets or his white suede shoes. Missouri constituents of the senator have not been advised fully of his departure from the black slouch hat and the high boots of the frontier, but his colleagues in the Senate are wise.

Senator Stone was on an elevator in which Senator W. Murray Crane was riding. At the next floor Senator Warren of Wyoming got in.

"How are you, Crane?" he said. "Have you overlooked Stone?" asked Senator Crane.

Sensor Warren turned and looked Senator Stone full in the face. He made a telescope of his hands and peered harder.

"What is it, Bill Stone, isn't it?" he said. "Bill, you are going to be such a dude I didn't know you."—New York Herald.

DON'T BE DECEIVED

Newbro's Herpicide Is the Only Original Remedy.

Just because you happen to see or hear the statement somewhere that another preparation will kill the dandruff germ, stop falling hair and is just as good as Herpicide, don't be fooled and allow yourself to be swindled out of your money.

You want Newbro's Herpicide, the remedy that has been tried, has stood the test of time and now has more satisfied users than all other similar preparations combined. As it attempts to sell you something else is merely another effort to profit from the good name established by the only genuine dandruff-germ destroyer.

Herpicide kills the dandruff germ, and prevents falling hair. It stops itching of the scalp almost instantly. It may be claimed that other hair remedies will do the same things, but Herpicide really does them. Its years of success prove this.

Send 10c in postage or silver for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R, Detroit, Mich.

All druggists sell Newbro's Herpicide. Applications may be obtained at good barber shops. One dollar also—guaranteed.

ROMANCE IN OLD CLAIMS

One of Mark Twain's stories was aimed at the red tape of the government. It related the experiences of a man who inherited the claim of John Wilson McKimble for sixty barrels of beef contracted to be furnished to Sherman's army, but which provisions decayed while the contractor was trying to catch up with Sherman on his march to the sea. A great many persons have laughed at the tale, but there is not so much exaggeration in it as might be imagined from Twain's style of telling it.

There are claims filed in Washington and in London aggregating several million dollars, some of which have remained unargued and uncollected for at least a hundred years. There is a likelihood of some of these being passed up, now that our government has agreed for the first time in a good many years to submit to arbitration under chapter IV of The Hague convention what are known as the "British pecuniary claims." This might have been done sooner if the late John Hay when secretary of state, becoming tired of attempts to secure justice for an American fishing boat captain whose craft was seized in Canadian waters, had not by inference served notice on the British government that no claims from its citizens would be considered at Washington until a disposition was shown in London to treat our claimants with fairness. This policy, it is said, has held good until recently, when the pressure at Washington became so strong that arbitration was decided on. The American claims exceed the English by over a million dollars.

They range from indemnities asked for strawberries picked by soldiers from the farm of a British British subject living at Chickamauga in 1838 to restitution of mining lands in South Africa valued at more than $2,000,000, which an American says were wrongfully taken from him. There are claims based on grants of lands to the Indians made by the British government in colonial days. In these musty archives are stories of adventure, of great fortunes made and lost, of captivity, deprivation and suffering. Here, for those with observation and imagination, is the stuff of which romance is made. Chicago Record-Herald.

BRIGANDAGE IN CUBA

There may or may not be ground for dissatisfaction with the administration of President Gomez in Cuba. Probably there is some, for few governments ever give entire satisfaction, and Cuba has been practicing the difficult art of self-government too short a time to permit the belief that she has mastered it to a greater degree than other nations. It is to be doubted, however, if justifiable dissatisfaction is so great as to warrant anything like revolution. The least favorable reports which we have heard from the insular republic have not indicated the need of anything more than constitutional efforts for relief.

If there is no cause for revolution there certainly cannot be the slightest good pretext for the movement which is now reported from the neighborhood of Havana. For it is not revolution even; but brigandage of the most detestable type. We are told that a politico-military leader, with a following variously reported at from fifty to two hundred and fifty men, has issued a proclamation, affecting to speak for the people of Cuba, and declaring that if the constitutional and lawful President does not resign his office within fifteen days resort will be had to indiscriminate and wholesale devastation until the whole island is devastated, and that unless the railroads refuse to transport troops for the government their trains will be wrecked, their bridges blown up, and their passengers slaughtered.

Between this and the devilries of the Black Hand, threatening to blow up a man's house or murder his children unless he pays blackmail, there is no perceptible moral difference, and it is not easy to see why there should be any difference in the regard of the world or the attitude of the legal authorities toward them. It is impossible to believe that such a movement can have the support of any considerable number of the Cuban people.—N. Y. Tribune.

NEW PHILOSOPHY OF WORRY

Thomas A. Edison is quoted as saying on the eve of departure for his first vacation in twenty-two years, "I am going away to worry. I have been too busy to worry, but now I can have a good time at it. By my system of living I expect to live 150 years. I sleep six hours. I work eighteen hours every day. I intend never to retire."

We have here an original philosophy of worry. Most men worry when they work, and the work suffers. Out of experience our ancestors long ago drew the conclusion: "Worry kills a cat." In these later days, however, have been organized "Don't Worry" Clubs. It has been held to be the part of wisdom never to worry. But here a philosopher plans to take a vacation that he may have time to worry, thereby fitting himself to live and work a century and a half.

It is significant that Mr. Edison is going abroad to find worry. He deems it unwise to look for it here. He will, of course, get it and may then discover that it is something he packed up and brought with him from home. For worry is a curious thing. Mr. Edison may have been sleeping with it in New Jersey for years without knowing it. But now that he has no work to engage his thoughts by day and induce awake sleep by night it may haunt him on the Atlantic.

This much may be said for the Edisonian philosophy: It is better to take a vacation and worry than to take no vacation at all and have to worry at your work or when you should be asleep.—New York World.

Frank Michaels' Shadow Lessened.

There has been a great deal of comment on the fact that Frank Michaels no longer casts a shadow like a Dreadnought. The ladies who strive for attention are pining to interview him on the subject, for this is an age when any one with a recipe for reducing flesh can command immediate attention. Have you ever observed that when the conversation sags at a tea party if some one will just introduce the subject of how to get thin everyone is electrified with interest, and while the good and tempting and fattening recipes, diets, formulas and systems are exchanged in god-faith, accompanied by resolutions to begin tomorrow.

To be sure, Frank Michaels is still carrying excess baggage, but he has nevertheless reduced sufficiently to call attention to himself. The true story of how it was accomplished may never be told, but it shall be written here and now. Frank Michaels and W. F. Herrin went over to Europe this summer to enjoy a motor trip. The touring car that they shipped over was of special make, designed to give comfort to a man built on the proportions of a Colossus. Michaels could loll in his seat instead of being securely wedged in, and the jaunt through France was made in comfort and luxury. But one fatal day the machine came a cropper and had to be sent to the infirmary. Motor agents swooped down on the Californians, offering to sell or rent just what they wanted. But Herrin took Michaels' measurements as certified by the London tailor, and compared them with the square inches of the cars submitted. In every case the grand and total area of Michaels eclipsed that of the car. So Michaels suggested that he would take train to a German spa and undergo the obesity cure while Herrin sought a suitable motor or supervised the patching up of the old one. The regime at the German spa succeeded in putting Michaels in condition for continuing the trip. Here is the only case on record where a man has trained down in order to fit a motor. —News Letter.

An Eligible Bachelor Weds

Announcement of the marriage of Douglas Grant reduces the list of eligible bachelors of San Francisco society, a list by no means prodigious. Mr. Grant is the heir of one of the best families in California, son of Joseph D. Grant, and grandson of the late Adam Grant, a highly respected merchant, who founded a great firm and left a very large fortune. Mr. Grant Goodrich, whom young Mr. Grant married at Hoboken, N. J., on the 24th of last February, just before the pair departed for Europe, came here from Minneapolis, and has been more noted for pulchritude than pedigree. When young Mr. Grant and Miss Goodrich began to be noticed dining frequently at the smart cafes in the neighborhood of the Hotel St. Francis, his relatives thought it advisable to have him take a trip to Europe and find new associations. The quiet marriage at Hoboken, the Gretna Green of New York, was the sequel to the young millionaire's departure from San Francisco. Later on the young man's relatives received disquieting reports from Europe, and, I am told, a telegram was forwarded inquiring, "Is it true you are not travelling in Europe alone?" "Naturally," was the laconic reply. Recently Mr. Grant and his bride had been living in apartments in Los Angeles till the illness of a relative of the lady's called her to Minneapolis. Mr. Grant then took up his residence at the California Club at Los Angeles, and only came north for a short time to see the golfers at Del Monte. He held the Pacific Coast golf amateur championship for a year himself, having won it at the Seattle Exposition. He is Mr. Grant's son by his first wife, a lady of the family, and a accomplished. Mr. Grant himself is an inspired citizen who has taken a keen interest in the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and assisted materially to secure that coveted prize for San Francisco.—The Wasp.

College Songs For Hawaiians

Mrs. Eleanor Hyde-Smith sailed for Honolulu on Wednesday of this week, where she will remain for several months as the guest of her daughter, Miss Harold Dillingham. The Walter Dillinghams are planning to spend part of the winter in San Francisco, where they will be cordially received. It is said that Walter Dillingham has set a number of nursery rhymes to the crooning, plaintive native airs, and they are as catchy as the famous Boola-Boola college songs which the young student originally improvised to a Hula-Hula melody in his freshman days. Now the Boola-Boola song is sung from coast to coast, and this year the Glee Club of the University of California carried it over to Paris.

Ice Water and Politics.

Fred Myrtle who writes politics for the Examiner went to a political meeting the other night and found the accommoplenty of room he found a seat on the platform near the speaker's stand. One of the rabble rousers made a speech the was adorned with swift full arm gesture and in the midst of a wonderful period he edged too close to the speaker's stand and swept a pitcher of ice water all over Martin's neck and breast. The crowd is Myrtle's highly breast. The crowd saw the point of the remark but they seemed to enjoy the gesture. To add to Myr-tle's discomfiture another scribe penciled the following and handed it to him:

We know that the flowers of speech are most fair
When political orators give 'em lots a hot air;
That political "stumps" are in no gear
of water
Any more than a tired and thirsty wa-porter.
A little gesture had surely sufficed,
if the meeting's frost now the Myrtle is iced.

THE MEDDLER

MISS EULA HOWARD, who is a favorite among the smart set.

—Genthe, Photo.

MISS ELIZABETH PRICE, who was recently entertained in Piedmont.

—Hartsook, Photo.

ALL around the bay, in fact all over the state, the leading social entertainments of the week have been suffrage teas. They have been held in many leading homes and have absorbed the attention of the smart sets everywhere. And there were wonderfully attractive teas. As one bright woman said: "There is something to talk about." A program is provided, and it is quite wonderful the amount of artistic talent that is available for the number of teas. There are the most delightful plays—full of wit and humor—and there are the most talented musicians one would wish to hear at these many suffrage teas. There are the most truly delightful hostesses as well—for it must be admitted that the suffrage slogan is sounded from the ranks of cultured women as well as from all other ranks.

The California campaign has been carried on along most unique lines. Women all over the world admit that. There has been very little bitterness to darken a certain sense of fairness. Where else in the world, except in sunny California, would sunny-tempered women sing and dance blithely down a campaign? It is simply astonishing, the good times the suffragists have given our state this summer. Leading Eastern women, who are used to going to other states to aid the good cause, have felt constrained to let California women go their own way.

They are a unique, original type of women—and they must work in their own happy way. For one thing, this is the great world of out-of-doors—and in such a world women learn to be good companions—they learn the meaning of true comradeship. And that makes them much fairer in their analysis of any great problem. So the women's campaign this year has been carried on along the best levels. They have been bright—never bitter—and they have gone on with convincing arguments presented in womanly, happy fashion. They have been so successful in their cheerful entertaining that when their object is achieved they ought to organize throughout the state—in a series of happy sunshine clubs—just for the promotion of "good times." One feels like saying, "All hail, O thou happy hearted California woman! She is the best type of womanhood—and she is fitted to lead the race in the world of today."

EXCELLENT WORK BY MRS. WILLIAM H. KEITH.

One cannot speak of suffrage without pausing to consider the splendid consistent work of Mrs. William H. Keith of Berkeley, who is now one of the best known women of the nation. Mrs. Keith was formerly Miss Mary McHenry, and in her girlhood days at the university, now more than a score of years ago, she was an acknowledged follower of Susan B. Anthony. In fact, what Susan Anthony was to the nation, Mrs. Keith is to this coast. She has always been a very graceful, very lovely type of womanhood. She is very pretty, indeed—with lovely coloring, very gentle and well bred—and it is a pleasure to hear her speak in a low, perfect voice that is charming.

Her gowns show the artists' touch, and she has presided over one of the happiest of the Berkeley homes—the late William Keith owing much of his inspiration to her happy influence.

Mrs. Keith has contributed a great deal of money to the cause so dear to her heart. It was she who gave the check for the first thousand dollars for this campaign—and when suffrage wins out in California the women of our state will owe a great debt of gratitude to Mrs. William Keith.

AN "AT HOME" AT THE REQUA RESIDENCE.

And so it happens that informal "at homes" seem to be the order of the early autumn entertaining, and the teas scheduled are all of the greatest interest, because the underlying reason for the tea in every case is an important one. Perhaps some distinguished guest is to be entertained, or some compliment is to be offered to some charming young bride-elect.

Mrs. Mark Requa entertained this afternoon very informally in her new Piedmont home, at a delightful tea. The invitations were over the telephone, and the guests included relatives, most intimate friends and neighbors.

It is a rare welcome that is offered friends in this beautiful new home of the Mark Requas, which now stands out on the Piedmont hills, a wonderful landmark, a fascinating study in soft yellow brown tones, against the dark green of the eucalyptus forest that climbs far up the mountain slopes.

The new home of the Mark Requas is a perfect study in architecture; its lines are very dignified, very classical, perfectly adapted to its position. In all its details it is so correct that it makes a glorious picture on the far heights. It is a house that bids fair to be truly historic for the beauty of its architecture, and for the hospitality for which the new home is sure to stand.

The house is situated on one of the most commanding sites at Piedmont, and is rectangular in form. It is exactly like an Italian house in color tones and in beauty of detail. A long facade in soft, subdued tones looks out upon the bay, the color scheme admirably brightened with the green shutters so characteristic of similar homes in Italy.

On either end are beautiful trellises, supported by Doric pillars, of the perfect classic type. The entrance faces the eucalyptus forest and the mountains, and here also the Doric design, in pillars and ornamentation, is beautifully expressed. This front facade, with its noble entrance, is full of dignity also, for the Doric proportions are the best that historic art has given us. Great windows of heavy plate glass, the cornices all following Doric details, look out upon the mountains and mark also all the front facade of the house.

There is much nobility in its lines, in the classic simplicity that is yet a fine study in ornamentation. Long ago the old Greek architects built wonderful structures on their great Acropolis. How little they knew that under far Western skies we should copy from them, and the message they sent out to the world would be repeated in many ways in a far distant land.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Requa have given much time and thought to the many details of their home. Its interior is in keeping with the lovely architecture, and each room is perfectly planned along artistic lines, but also most livable, expressing great comfort and interpreting "home" in its truest sense. The beautiful new home made a charming environment for a gathering of friends, the latter bringing many wishes that good fortune might find an abiding place in this new home.

Mrs. Requa received her guests in the beautiful large drawing room, which is a delightful study in old rose, and with its artistic setting and superb outlook it is one of the most attractive rooms on this side of the bay.

The family circle of the Mark Requas is a large one, including Mrs. Isaac Requa, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Stanford, the Misses Herrick, Mrs. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ross, General and Mrs. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph King, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Harris, Mrs. Albert Miller, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. A. Miller, Major and Mrs. Mhoon, Miss Majory Mhoon, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. G. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Harry East Miller, Miss Marian Miller and Miss Annie Miller.

Many well-known Piedmont people were also invited to the "at home," which was planned by Mrs. Mark Requa on lines of delightful hospi-talities and her friends received a welcome which was most cordial and sincere.

EBELL CLUB RECEPTION WILL BE NOTABLE.

Receptions, "at homes," informal teas mark the September round of entertainment. The Ebell Club is to be the scene of one of the largest receptions of the year, by way of opening the season with true glory. Mrs. Woodbury and the board of directors are to receive the guests on the afternoon of September 26th, and the "at home" will be a brilliant affair. The early entertainments of the winter are always of interest, and they are usually successful. Here are the new gowns which have perhaps represented weeks of thought, and here also are the new hats, and what is of more interest, in the late September days than a new hat? It is interesting to note whether one's friend is to be a charming picture, with the most made of her good points, or if she is to look like a fright, for all her pains.

A September reception is full of life and color, and the Ebell Club reception, assembling as it will hundreds of guests, will be an event notable in the social annals of the autumn.

Mrs. William Lettis Oliver is also planning a large reception, for which she has set the date as September 27. The Oliver family circle includes many delightful people, who all join in making the large social affairs planned by the family most successful. Among the many relatives are Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Brown, Mrs. Everts, Miss Florine Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Madison Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. George Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oliver.

They make an attractive gathering when they all assemble at the family home on Vernon Heights.

MRS. ARTHUR DRAKE HOSTESS AT A TEA.

Mrs. Arthur Drake (Bessie York), was the hostess on Wednesday, entertaining at a delightful tea in honor of her sister, Miss Pauline York, and also in honor of Miss Ruth Sadler, whose engagement to Bertrand York was announced this year.

Mrs. Drake has a very attractive home in the lower Claremont hills, and it was very artistically decorated in pink color tones in honor of the two brides-elect, who were her special guests.

The guest list included the large family circle of the hostess, her most intimate friends, and those of the two brides-elect. There were over a hundred guests at the tea, which was informal and very delightful. Mrs. Drake is a specially attractive hostess, for she is a young matron who has read a great deal, a fine conversationalist, and a woman of much charm.

The wedding date of Mr. Bonner and Miss Pauline York is set for September 30, and the young people are to make their home in this city.

SOCIETY PEOPLE GREAT MOTORISTS.

Californians are great motorists, indeed they are the most fascinating travelers in the world. No trip is too difficult for them, and the element of danger only makes the trip more alluring. Many enthusiasts this year have tried the trip to Crater Lake in Oregon, the road leading through very wonderful scenery. And Lake Tahoe is an objective point for many motorists. Mr. and Mrs. Luning have recently returned from a motor trip through Lake county, and the Luning family have spent all summer in touring in their large car.

J. R. Burnham generally drives his own car, and there are very few trips in California which he and Mrs. Burnham have not taken.

The Lobins and Tom Magees are still abroad, "motoring like mad" they write, and their experiences would make a most fascinating book. The Seward McNeers are at Tahoe, and they spend much time motoring in the mountain regions, and the P. E. Bowles have spent much time this summer in successful automobile trips. Californians are trying new plans this season. They are shipping their cars to Kansas City and motoring from that point East. Mr. E. W. Hopkins and his daughter, Miss Florence Hopkins, left for the East this week. They are going directly to Kansas City, to which point their car has been shipped. They will motor from there to Detroit, and will go on after that wherever their fancy may lead them.

Mrs. Crellin, with her daughters, the Misses Mona and Jane Crellin, and with her son Lloyd Crellin, have also motored extensively abroad. They are now in Germany, and they will probably be home early in the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Whipple Hall (Ethel Crellin) have extended their Australian trip, and they do not expect to return to California until sometime in October.

Mrs. C. C. Clay and the Philip Clays are also very fond of motor trips, and this season the Philip Clays have been living at Mission San Jose. They built a home there, near the picturesque place of the A. A. Moores, and they have spent the entire summer out of town. Among their guests this season have been Miss Madeline Clay, Miss Letty Barry and Miss May Coogan.

RECEPTION BY LADIES' RELIEF.

The reception given by the president and the directors of the Ladies' Relief Association was well attended, and in the assemblage on Thursday afternoon many well-known families were represented.

This annual reception has for many years been a gala day at the Home, at Alameda, and the dear old ladies, to whom it is indeed a home in every sense of the word, make of it an annual festival. They are all daintily gowned, and they receive their friends with much delight. In fact, they are "a receiving party" on their own account.

A very delightful musical program added to the enjoyment of the afternoon. Mrs. Winchester, who was formerly Alma Berglund, gave some musical numbers, and the talented sons of Mrs. Edwin Garthwaite (Augusta Lowell) also contributed to the musical program.

Miss Matilda Brown, the able president of the association, received the guests, and among those at the reception were:

Mrs. Brown	Miss Elizabeth Gill
Miss Anna Brown	Mrs. John J. Valentine
Mrs. Louis Gibrardell	The Misses De Fremery
Mrs. Everts	Mrs. D. H. Mathes
Mrs. R. G. Brown	Mrs. Henry Bull
Mrs. Florine Brown	Mrs. Arthur Breed
Mrs. William Lettis	Mrs. A. P. Cornwall
Oliver	Mrs. Henry Wadsworth
Mrs. J. A. Hill	Mrs. Bakewell
Mrs. Fred Greenwood	Miss Hallie Bakewell
Mrs. H. S. Kegan	Miss Helen Campbell
Mrs. J. H. Wright	Mrs. Frank Weston
Miss Elva McGraw	Mrs. Spencer Browne
Mrs. E. C. Williams	Miss Ann Miner
Mrs. W. C. Vetch	Mrs. R. A. Wellman
Mrs. George E. Whitney	Mrs. Jefferson Maury
Mrs. Harry Miller

CHARMING HOSTESSES OF THE WEEK.

Bridge dates are left for the latter part of the season—just now it is the "at homes" that are interesting many people. Among the well-known hostesses of the week have been Mrs. Arthur Drake and Miss Martha Chickering. Miss Chickering's "at home" was in the nature of a farewell to her friends, as she is leaving in the near future for New York City, where she will spend a year. She is to study the work of the Young Women's Christian Association, which she is greatly interested in, and which finds its best expression in that city. Miss Chickering is an exceedingly helpful girl, and a very able student, one who cares little for the ordinary society life of the day, and bids fair to achieve things very much worth while in the world of work. It is a fine thing when young women like Miss Chickering can learn to plan for other young girls not so fortunate in a social way.

The Chickering home in Sixteenth street made a most attractive setting for a very delightful tea. Among those who assisted the bright young hostess in receiving her friends were her mother, Mrs. William H. Chickering, Mrs. John Overbury, Mrs. Roger Chickering, Mrs. Robert Bentley, Miss Gladys English, Miss Marjorie Coogan, Miss Lillie Sherman, Miss Juliette Perrin, Miss Pauline Pierson, Miss Jessie Laffin, Miss Georgie McCoy.

Miss Chickering made a fine record at the University, from which she graduated last May. She spent the summer traveling extensively with her parents on the Continent.

Miss Chickering was beautifully gowned in white lace over white silk, and Mrs. William Chickering wore an exceedingly handsome gown in black lace effects.

MISS JULIA FRASER ENTERTAINED.

Miss Julia Fraser of New York City has been extensively entertained during the past week by many old time friends in this city, where she formerly made her home. Miss Fraser attended the Oakland High School here and made many friends during her school days in our city. She came West to spend the summer, and her California visit has been made very pleasant for her by numerous entertainments in the homes of dear friends.

Miss Fraser is a very clever writer, and so the tea planned for her Thursday by Mrs. Joseph E. Baker was specially appropriate. Mrs. Baker invited among other guests to meet Miss Fraser the members of the Original Writers' Section of the Ebell Club. Among the very clever writers of that section are Mrs. Joseph Baker, Mrs. Etta Loring Smith and Charles H. Rowe.

The tea was very informal, and with the coterie of clever friends asked to meet Miss Fraser it was most enjoyable.

Yesterday Mrs. Charles M. Burdick entertained at a large tea at her home on Vernon street, making Miss Fraser her guest of honor. Mrs. Burdick was assisted in entertaining her guests by her mother, Mrs. Henry Morris, and daughter, Miss Alice Burdick. The tea was also a farewell to their friends, Mrs. Burdick and Miss Alice Burdick are to leave for the East in September, going directly to Rochester, New York.

They will be the guests of Mrs. Nicholas Weldgen, who was formerly Miss Mary Burdick, and whose wedding took place last winter at the Henry Morris home on Vernon Heights.

MRS. MCKEE SHERRARD HAS NOVEL "AT HOME."

A very enjoyable "at home," along unusual lines, was given in Alameda on Tuesday afternoon, the hostesses of the hour being Mrs. McKee Sherrard and Mrs. Fritz Van Sicken. They have lovely adjoining gardens, which were thrown into one, and here the sixty guests of the afternoon were received. There was bridge for those who preferred cards, and many of the guests had brought their sewing bags, enjoying in the quaint gardens the most delightful of thimble bees.

Mrs. McKee Sherrard was formerly Miss Sophie Van Sicken of Burlington, Vermont. She is a niece of J. F. Van Sicken of Alameda, and in visiting the Van Sicken she met Mr. Sherrard, who persuaded her to make her permanent home on this coast.

Her brother is Jack Van Sicken, whose engagement to Miss Sue Harrold has just been announced.

The Sherrard-Van Sicken garden party was planned under ideal conditions. The weather was perfect, the gardens were a bower of bloom, and the late afternoon hours were greatly enjoyed by the many guests.

VAN SICKLEN-HARROLD BETROTHAL A SURPRISE.

The announcement of the engagement of Jack Van Sicken and Miss Sue Harrold was a great surprise to the many friends of the young people, and many good wishes all the week have been winging their way to both of the young people. The Van Sicken is a prominent family of the East, their home having been for many years in Burlington, Vermont. They are great friends of the Frank Richardson Wells (Jean Hush).

Jack Van Sicken is a young man of much promise. He has gone into business on our coast, and he is planning to make his permanent home here.

The Harrolds have lived for many years in Fruitvale, and they have a wide social connection. The young people of the family have always entertained extensively, and their home has been the center of much hospitality. Miss Sue Harrold is the only daughter of the household, and she is a very unspoiled, unaffected girl. She belongs to the set of young girls who have been in the dancing clubs now for a season or two, and in that special set of girls may be mentioned Miss Georgie Creed, Miss Madeline Clay, Miss Amy Bowles, Miss Gladys Wilson, Miss Eliza McMullin, Miss Harriet Stone, Miss Lella Ewing, Miss Marian Miller, Miss Lele Holland, Miss Ruth Hall, Miss Myra Hall, Miss Marjorie Coogan, Miss Ruth Sharon.

The Harrolds intended to announce the engagement at a large card party, but the passing of Mrs. Harrold senior changed their plans.

After a few weeks there will be many complimentary affairs for the young bride-elect, for already there is much planning for this attractive young woman.

AUGUST SCHILLINGS IN HOME AT WOODSIDE.

The August Schillings are comfortably established in their new home at Woodside and Elise and Rudolph Schilling are entertaining friends there. Mr. Schilling bought the Preston home, which was for years one of the picturesque estates in that part of the country. The grounds represent the growth of years and are very beautiful, and Mr. Schilling is making plans to improve them still more.

When his plans are carried out the place will resemble some of those old English estates, down in Surrey for instance, that are so charming. In the time of the Prestons there was a great winery on the place, very picturesque and covered with vines. Mr. Schilling does not intend to make wine on the place, nor to carry on farming to any extent, so he is having the winery remodeled and is to make of it an annex to the house, where friends of the young people of the household may be made comfortable.

Meantime the friends of the Schillings here look with much disfavor on the many plans for beautifying the Woodside home. They bemoan a long absence from Oakland, and consequently no entertainment in the beautiful home by the lake.

HOSTESSES WELCOME REVERSION TO TEAS.

This reversion to the tea as a means of entertaining is welcomed by many hostesses. In the first place a tea is not difficult to manage, the only thing one need fear is a rainy day. Then, indeed, is a tea disastrous, for the ordinary guest would never think of exposing the hat dear to her heart to the mercuries of a rain shower. And the carriages are not always to be had for the asking. One needs a crowd, a regular crush, to make a tea interesting, so the hostess sends out many cards. On the contrary, a large card party is rarely interesting. The hostess cannot arrange her tables properly, and it is the height of discomfort to be obliged to spend a whole afternoon with a poor player, or with a guest who has scarcely any personality.

The large tea and the small card party are the two successful ways of entertaining guests. Of course there are luncheons and dinners, but these are for the elect of one's friends. The element of time enters now into our entertaining. Women have not much time to spare, since life is so full of interesting activities. And one can go to a tea in "the shank of the hour," after the other duties of the day are practically over. One may find the friends in the crowd one chooses to meet, and one may spot from afar off the acquaintance one would gladly avoid.

But at cards one must spend the whole afternoon. To reach a destination one leaves immediately after luncheon, and fortunate is that woman who arrives home in time for the dinner hour. Of course we will play bridge. It is our main amusement, but if we are to play it, let it be with friends who know how to play the game.

DEL MONTE IS SCENE OF GAYETY.

Del Monte is very gay indeed this week, the golf tournament being the attraction which is drawing people from all parts of the State. The Will Crocker is to be there for a few days, as Mr. Crocker plays a very good game of golf. Mrs. Towne and the Wordens always spend some September days at Del Monte, and one of the finest players of the Claremont Country Club, W. F. Garby, will be there. Others who have gone to Del Monte this week are Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Neville, Jack Neville, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Searles, E. B. Braden, Miss Winifred Braden, the Misses Vera and Ethel Havemeyer and Miss Rose Kales.

At Del Monte also are Gardner Williams and his two daughters, who have spent the time there since the sad passing of Mrs. Williams in the Spokane shipwreck. They are in mourning, and are not taking part in the social activities of the great hotel. They all play a very good game of golf, and are often to be met on the Del Monte links. Mr. and Mrs. William Mein (Frances Williams) have been spending some days at Del Monte with the Gardner Williams.

Mr. Gardner Williams and his daughters will open their Washington home for the winter, and Mr. and Mrs. William Mein are planning to spend the coming season on this coast, and Mrs. Mein is looking for a suitable home in San Francisco.

Others at Del Monte are the C. B. Wingates, the H. H. Sherwoods, the Fred Clarks, D. P. L. Fredericks, Al Coogan, Bruce Heathcote and Miss Gregory. All of them are from the Claremont Country Club.

MISS MABEL REIGELMAN IS TO GIVE CONCERT.

One hears that a future musical date of the greatest interest will be the concert to be given by Miss Mabel Reigelman, a pupil of Louis Crepau, the talented young Oakland prima donna, on September 27.

The concert is to be given in the Columbia Theater across the bay, and leading San Francisco people are taking the greatest interest, so that an appreciative and enthusiastic audience is already assured.

Miss Reigelman goes East in September to join the other members of Mr. Dippel's wonderful singers in the Metropolitan Opera Company. Among them is to be again this season Mary Garden, and Mr. Dippel has engaged Maggie Teyte, who has such a wonderful contralto voice.

Miss Reigelman is to be accompanied East by her mother, Mrs. Meyer Reigelman, and they will meet Madame Gaski, who has quite recovered from her serious illness of the summer. New York is to hear Madame Gaski in Wagnerian opera, and she is to make a concert tour also. Mabel Reigelman is to sing with the great Madame Gaski in concert before she begins her own work in the grand opera season.

The season opens in Philadelphia, and Mr. Dippel will present Humperdinck's delightful opera, "Hans and Gretel," the leading part of Hans to be taken by Mabel Reigelman, so it is to be seen that the charming young Oakland singer has really "arrived." She deserves her success, and she has worked hard to achieve it, and she is sure to score well in the part of "Hans," for the story told by the opera is one of the most delightful of fairy tales.

THE BETROTHAL OF MISS WINONA DERBY.

An engagement of much interest on our side of the bay was announced this week, that of Lieutenant Henry Burgh, U. S. A., and Miss Winona Derby. Lieutenant Burgh is well known on this coast, where he has been stationed for some years. He comes of a well-known Kentucky family and is in command of the mine planter "Armistead."

Miss Derby is a daughter of Mr. and the late Richard Derby, and her school days were for the most part passed on our side of the bay, for the Derby family is one of the pioneer families here. The late Richard Derby was for thirty years associated with the Southern Pacific Company. The Derbys built a most artistic residence at Linda Vista, in which for many years they made their home.

Miss Derby is a very attractive girl who has been most carefully educated. She has been at school in the East, and a French boarding school had contributed its share to the fine education of this popular bride-elect.

Mrs. Derby and her daughter reside across the bay, and they have a very delightful home on Washington street.

MRS. SYLVANUS FARNHAM A HOSTESS AT TEA.

Mrs. Sylvanus Farnham was the hostess at a delightfully informal tea given in her apartment across the bay. The Farnhams have closed their home on this side of the bay and they are planning to spend the winter in San Francisco. Mrs. Farnham entertained in honor of Miss Amelia Simpson, one of the popular brides-elect of the year, and she was assisted in receiving her guests by her mother, Mrs. Clifford, and her sister, Miss Elsie Clifford.

Among the guests at the "at home" were:

Miss Amelia Simpson, Miss Kathleen Farrell, Mrs. George Porter, Miss Eliza McMullin, Miss Frances Stewart, Mrs. Philip Bancroft, Miss Janet Coleman, Mrs. Charles Huse, Miss Edith Gregg, Mrs. Harry Mosher, Miss Fernanda Pratt, Mrs. Arthur Gelsler, Miss Anna Welser, Mrs. John Breuner, Miss Ida Bonsteg, Mrs. Kenneth McDonald, Miss Helen Sullivan, Miss Marian Stone, Miss Anna Peters, Miss Edith Metcalfe, Miss Edith Traher, Miss Doris Wilshire, Miss Florence Cluff, Miss Alma Birmingham, Miss Freda Smith.

AMONG THE GUESTS IN OAKLAND HOMES.

Among the guests in Oakland this week is Mrs. John B. Mhoon, formerly Miss Charlotte Miller. She is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Albert Miller, at the family home on Fourteenth street. Major and Mrs. Mhoon have made their permanent home in Pasadena, where they have established a delightful residence, Major Mhoon's health being very much better in the south. Mrs. Mhoon has with her very attractive young daughter, Miss Majory Mhoon, who always has a very good time when she comes to Oakland, for she has many bright young cousins to make her welcome.

MISS MARIAN MILLER TO BECOME A NURSE.

Miss Marian Miller is one of the brave young girls who cares nothing at all for social activities, but a very great deal for splendid ideals of life. And social circles this winter will see very little of beautiful Miss Miller, for she begins her nurse's training course in the children's hospital this month.

Miss Miller is the eldest daughter of C. O. G. Miller and a granddaughter of Mrs. Albert Miller. She is also a granddaughter of the late Doctor Tucker, and from him she has inherited a predilection for a medical career. If she could have commenced her studies earlier there is no doubt that she would have achieved success as a physician. But she is very fond of children and she will find a work to her hand in the children's hospital.

Miss Marian Miller is a very beautiful girl, with lovely coloring. She is tall and slender, and with much poise. She is most attractive, with exceedingly refined manners and a great kindness of spirit that shines out in her face, lending it much charm. Of course she will succeed, she will do much good in the world, and she will achieve far more than could ever come to her in just the ordinary social round of life.

PICTURES IN THE MEDDLER.

Miss Irene Smith is the daughter of one of the old-established families of Alameda and is a singer of marked ability.

Miss Fay Frisbie is popular in college and social circles and is a frequent hostess, entertaining at her home in East Oakland.

Miss Elizabeth Price was recently the honored guest at an elaborate affair in Piedmont. She possesses a rich contralto voice and is often heard at the most exclusive gatherings on both sides of the bay.

Miss Eula Howard is an attractive girl who has a host of friends in Oakland.

COLLEGE YEAR HAS BEGUN.

The college year at Berkeley has definitely begun, and there are many functions to mark the social side of college activities. There are the receptions for new members, and the freshmen are the center of interest in these initial days. The sororities announce the new freshman members, and among them are Miss Beth Hoyt, Miss Frank Pierce, Miss Gertrude Adams, Miss Helen Coogan, Miss Mabel Moller and Miss Edith Good-fellow.

THE MEDDLER.

Berkeley, will leave tonight for Phoenix, Ariz., to spend the fall and winter with her aunt, Mrs. L. Holmes, who has recently been visiting in Oakland.

MISS FISCHER HOSTESS. Miss Maud Fischer entertained on Thursday afternoon at a recipe show, given in honor of Miss Edith Cameron, whose wedding will take place September 14. Miss Edna Fischer, who will soon leave for the East, sang several solos. The guests of the afternoon were: Miss Edith Cameron, Miss Ethel Cameron, Miss Dorothy Kuchel, Miss Wynne Meredith, Miss George Meredith, Miss Edna Fischer, Miss Hope Cortelyou, Miss Grace Benner, Miss Ethel Olson, Miss Norma Whitney, Miss Gertrude Posiel, Miss Gladys Brooks, Miss Olive Dill, Miss Hazel Plummer, Miss Lorne Knowles of San Jose, Mrs. Chester Norton Jamison, Mrs. Howard Henry Fissett, Mrs. Earle Scofield and Mrs. Frank Youngberg.

MUSICAL CLUB. Miss Evelyn Sherrard was a recent hostess, entertaining the members of a musical study club that was organized last year and meets every third Thursday.

—:— SOCIETY —:—

MISS MARIE HALL will be hostess on next Saturday evening at her home in Hillside avenue, Berkeley, entertaining at a charmingly planned dinner dance. The honored guests are to be Miss Myrtle Simms, a bride-elect; Mrs. John McClellan, who was Olive Vos Winkie, and Mrs. George Kenyon, who, as Marie Kenyon, was one of the most popular girls of the local set. Mrs. Kenyon has just returned from Seattle, but since her marriage of nearly a year ago has spent much time in the Orient, where her husband, a naval officer, has been stationed. Saturday's function will bring together a group of Miss Hall's girl friends and a number of navy men now in this port.

Miss Letitia Barry is planning to entertain next week in honor of Miss Myrtle Simms, whose wedding is set for September 12. Miss Barry is to attend Miss Simms as maid of honor. Others in the bridal party will be Miss Mary Downey, Miss Marie Hall, Mrs. E. R. Abadie and Mrs. G. S. Wichter. Kenneth Hamilton, the bridegroom, will be assisted by William Adams as best man.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS INCAS DESCENDANT SUES DENTIST FOR LOST BLOOD

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2.—Princess Sleta, ruler of a Peruvian Indian tribe, who can trace her ancestry directly back to Atahualpa, the last of the Incas, slain by Pizarro, will appear in Justice Walker's court, September 21, and prosecute a dental company for $500, damages.

The princess avers the dentist who attended her not only drew the wrong tooth, but severed an artery from which five quarts of royal Peruvian blood escaped before a physician could staunch the flow.

The princess and her husband, Jack Chien, an American, are touring the United States. She will return to Peru in October. She is the active ruler of the country, which covers a territory more than 500 miles square, and her word is supreme.

Her husband is an American cowboy, who rode horseback from the Texas panhandle to Peru. He is devoted to his princess wife. They are accompanied by two servants, Peruvian Indians, who can speak no English save a few words. The suit against the dentist was filed yesterday. The princess was treated August 20, it is alleged, and for several days she was in a hospital.

Lillian Russell Booked

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Arrangements have been made by which Lillian Russell, whose name and counterfeited resemblance in photograph form are familiar in every home in America, will return to the comic opera stage this season.

Responding to entreaties of Victor Herbert, Miss Russell last year, while at Manhattan Beach, sang to the accompaniment of Herbert's band, and the impresarios who were there at the time felt each other's eyes and decided to induce the fair Lillian to return to the field of comic opera.

From a list of five contracts Miss Russell yesterday selected the one bearing the name of the firm of Werba & Luescher. She is to have a selection of new works, including "The Opera Ball," composed by Franz Lehár of "Merry Widow" fame, or "Her Majesty Mind," by Granichsen, and a new Viennese writer, whose works are immensely popular in Vienna and Berlin.

Towels in Coaches

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—The Southern Pacific Company announced yesterday for the benefit of its women passengers that the towels rescinding order issued Thursday is not to affect the women's dressing and washrooms on its railroad coaches.

Only the ferryboats will be affected by the new ruling, which is intended to short the indignities of female followers of the light-fingered profession, whose towel thievery has cost the wealthy corporation approximately $21,000 a year.

It would be difficult—very difficult—to eliminate linen from the lavatories on coaches because of the certain quantity of dust bound to annoy women patrons of the most careful railroads, say officials, and the Southern Pacific does not want to be the incontinent cause of the complexion of its feminine patrons or causing discomfort or annoyance on the railroad cars to all because of the reckless consciences of a limited number.

Sultan Receives Women

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 2.—For the first time in Turkish history the Sultan yesterday received a deputation of women. He promised them that he would do what he could to improve the lot of Ottoman women. The members of the delegation wore Eastern costumes and were heavily veiled.

Daughter Is Insulted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Representative Charles Carter of Oklahoma created excitement in the heart of the smart shopping center by assaulting four clerks, one of whom he insulted his 15-year-old daughter, Miss Italy Carter, who was with her father on a shopping expedition.

Aged Women Motorists

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—Three women, the youngest 80 years of age, started today on an automobile trip from this city to Los Angeles. They expect to make the distance in two days, traveling nights, when the condition of the roads will permit. The women are sisters, Mrs. Sophia Browning, 81 years; Mrs. Rebecca Van Bergen, 83 years of age; and Mrs. Hannah Meyer, 80 years of age.

Breach of Promise

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Otto L. Wright, president of the Wright law firm, must answer in the Supreme court for his alleged failure to marry pretty Helen Halsey, a vaudeville actress. She has served upon him a summons for his appearance in her $50,000 damage suit.

Miss Halsey and Wright have been acquainted for several years, and she claims that he won her promise to be his wife and after delaying the wedding for a long time told her he could not possibly marry her at the church. She would not let him.

This was the first intimation, Miss Halsey says, that she had of Wright's marriage to Miss Florence J. Rima.

May Waive Dower

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Margaret Livingston Chandler, widow of Robert Chandler, has filed suit in the Supreme court for partition of part of the Chandler estate, but she has not named Lina Chandler, grand opera singer, as an interested party.

This omission was explained yesterday by the assertion that Chandler's wife amicably inclined toward "Sheriff Bob" Chandler and has agreed to sign a waiver of her dower claims on this part of his estate.

The property to be partitioned is known as the old Curzon farm in the vicinity of West Fifty-fifth street. It is worth several hundred thousand dollars.

ALWAYS ENJOY YOURSELF

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright, 1911, By Lillian Russell.)

THERE are few women who know how to enjoy themselves, and that is one of the reasons why you see so many ugly faces in an afternoon walk. Men, as a rule, are happier, for although they have more responsibility they seldom take themselves seriously. But women! To most of them the whole universe palpitates around their egos, consequently they cannot stop worrying about it a minute for fear a cog will slip somewhere.

Women enjoy a few other women, some men, and occasionally a condition, and there they stop. Men, on the contrary, enjoy all women, most men, and every condition, and add to all these a supreme enjoyment of themselves. They take such obvious pleasure in being men.

No one ever heard a man say he wished he had been born a woman; and yet if the truth were known (and, being known, were told) there is much more enjoyment in being a woman than a man.

Most women are too modest about their own qualifications and too sensitive about the judgment of others to really enjoy themselves. There is nothing more appreciated in this world than beauty, yet there are few lovely women who are strong enough to brave conventional opinion and thoroughly enjoy their own pulchritude. So often do we hear that "she is so beautiful and so unconscious of it."

Will any one kindly state why it should be a virtue to be a hypocrite?

No woman who ever had a modicum of good looks was really unaware of it, and all this rot about not realizing it is simply bowing to conventional standards in the matter.

It is not in denying to yourself that you look well that makes people dislike you, but it is in impressing the fact upon them that you are not able to see beauty in any one but yourself that gets on their nerves.

The same theory may be applied to the ability to accomplish. No woman in this world ever did anything worth while, whether it was clearing her complexion, reducing her flesh, writing a poem or cooking a dinner, unless she was sure she could do it and enjoyed her own methods and herself in doing it.

A conceited woman cannot enjoy herself, for she is always looking for the impression she makes upon other people. The capable woman, however, while she may enjoy the appreciation of others, is too busy carrying out her own ideas to worry much about the superficial opinions of others. If you would belong to the highest type of people, enjoy other women, other men, little children and all the enjoyable things in this beautiful world, but don't stop there; be sure to enjoy yourself.

Remember, the only difference between capability and conceit is that capability means self-knowledge and self-respect and conceit is lack of knowledge of self and little respect for the other woman.

ONE OF THE OTHERS—I am giving recipes almost every day and telling my beauty secrets. Stamped, addressed letters are only to insure those interested a recipe which will absolutely apply to their beauty ills. It is more of a personal affair. However, if you do not care to invest this amount of money just keep on reading my beauty sermons, and in time you will get all the secrets.

ANXIOUS—The hair will not be healthy if the scalp is covered with dandruff. One of the best cures for dandruff is common kerosene oil. At night pour a little into a saucer. Then separate the hair in strands so that the scalp is left bare in spots. Now dip the fingers in the kerosene and rub it well into the scalp, keeping the hair itself free from the oil. Remember, it is the scalp that needs the treatment. If you do not fancy kerosene I shall be glad to send you the recipe for a good tonic which will remove the dandruff when you send me the necessary envelope, stamped and addressed.

D. V. G.—If you will send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and again ask me I shall mail you instructions for massage of the neck and a simple exercise to fill out that hollow under your chin.

securely. After the elbows have grown more presentable they may be kept in good condition by massaging them three or four times daily, working in cucumber cream or a plain cleansing cream. Remember that the elbows should receive the same daily care that you give the hands and nails and never should be used as a prop.

F.—Puffiness under the eyes may be the result of eye strain, late hours, or internal derangement. If you do not fancy the kerosene, use a soothing eye wash. Apply the following lotions to the baggy part at night: Twenty grains of tannic acid, one ounce of glycerine. Am sending you by mail complete instructions for massage to remove the lines from nose, mouth and crows' feet, recipes for an astringent wash for tired eyes and for the skin food which I have used for twenty years.

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

BOY SCOUTS WILL ENJOY DAY'S OUTING

The boy scouts of the First Presbyterian church of this city will enjoy Admission Day in the Cliff House and Golden Gate Park, where the youngsters will be in charge of Chief Scoutmaster L. N. Brasefield. They plan to leave the church, Fourteenth and Franklin streets, at 8:30 a. m., September 9, and will pass the greater part of the holiday in the park, where they will engage in baseball and basketball games. They will return to this city at sunset.

The annual election of officers will be held on that day at the Cliff House. The man of her choice, the Rev. Royal E. Blaise, of Spokane, Wash., Mr. Blaise is now stationed at Baroda, India, and Miss Gossnell will leave Monday on the long journey eastward.

Accompanying her will be another expectant bride, Miss Nellie Brandall of Chicago. She, too, is to marry a mission man.

The wedding of Mr. Blaise and Miss Gossnell will be the first real American marriage ceremony ever seen at Baroda.

Woman Is Rebuked
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—Helen L. Kaufman started to practice law yesterday in Superior Judge Graham's court with her hat on. The court reminded her that as long as she had sat on the bench no lawyer had ever claimed the liberty of conducting a case without first doffing his hat.

Promptly three long hatpins were removed and the next headgear was placed on the table with the leather-bound law books. Then counsel continued with the case of William Semmer against all persons.

Semmer's title to the property was proved to the satisfaction of the court. The lawyer then resumed her bonnet and departed with her client.

FRESHMEN ARE GIVEN RECEPTION

ELEANOR BASSETT, who took part in the entertainment and reception given in the Oakland High School yesterday.

About one hundred and fifty freshmen were the guests of the members of the junior class of the Oakland high school at a reception and entertainment held yesterday in the gymnasium of the school. Twelfth and Grove streets. The affair was given under the auspices of the girl students' association of the school and was attended by about six hundred girls. It was one of the most interesting affairs of the fall term. The reception committee was composed of Gladys Furth, chairman; Caroline Ketchum, Genevieve Hough and Eleanor Bassett.

The following was the order of the vaudeville entertainment given during the reception:

Opening chorus, "Anything to Amuse the Freshies," presented by the acrobatically inclined of the A. Y. W. S. Ora Arnold, Irene McReavy, Alma Roarbach, Genevieve Owen, Alice Williams, Wilhelmina Dickinson, Irene Elcott, Ruth Wadwell, Gail Casad, Marian Gartner, Ethel Hamilton, Gladys Teague.

Recitation, Mignon de Neuf. Miss Clara Russell, prima donna of the Y. W. S. Operatic Company, assisted by Alice Elliot and Miss Alice Leigh, introducing for the first time in

PERPETUAL AIRSHIP TROPHY WON BY MORRILL

Harvey P. Morrill, one of the founders of the Oakland Aerie Amateur Club of the Young Men's Christian Association, won the perpetual trophy in the aerial contest held yesterday in front of the Y. M. C. A. building, Twenty-first street and Telegraph avenue. The affair was the first contest of the fall season and was attended by the members of the club and hosts of boys of the various organizations of the association. Morrill's machine made a flight of 7 feet and rose from the ground under its own power to a height of ten.

Arrangements are being made for a gliding and miniature power contest with the aero club of San Francisco, the Young Men's Christian Association, and the local Y. M. C. A. September 30. The committee in charge of the local club includes Raymond Montague, chairman; Clifton Gordon, secretary; William Davis Jr., and Harvey Morrill.

FREMONT FRESHMEN SELECT OFFICERS

The freshman class of the Fremont high school yesterday organized and elected officers. There are 184 in the class, which is the largest ever entering Fremont. The following officers were elected: President, Carlton Jones; vice-president, Robert Crisp; secretary, Francis Pierce; treasurer, Miss Rice; senators, Lucy Catlin and Howard Tellere; sergeant at arms, Leslie Reader.

Among these are Miss Ruth Holt, Miss Minnie Jacob, Miss Marguerite Carpenter, Miss Alexine Mitchell, Miss Marion Mitchell, Miss Hazel Holt, Miss Caroline Hall, Miss Viola Miner, Miss Ethel Plummer, Miss Bess O'Connor, Miss Edith Cramer and Miss Edith Whitney.

RETURN FROM OUTING.
Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Merriman, Jr., have returned from their vacation after an enjoyable month spent in Shasta county.

CLUB DANCE.
The Oakland Motorcycle Club is planning an enjoyable dance for next Wednesday evening at 8:30. Maple Hall will be the scene of the gathering.

MISS HALL WELCOMED.
Miss Myra Hall, who for a year or more has resided in San Francisco, is now stopping at the Claremont Country Club and is warmly welcomed by the exclusive circle, of which she is a popular member.

TO STUDY ABROAD.
Miss Thel Jordan, accompanied by her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Kilburn, left a few days ago for a two years' sojourn in Europe, where she is to continue her musical education.

BRIDGE AND TEA.
Mrs. Robert Valleau entertained today at an informal bridge party. The interesting game was followed by a half hour over tea.

INTERESTING ENGAGEMENTS.
An engagement that is calling forth a shower of congratulations is that of Miss Alice Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Curtis, to Edmon E. Renshaw. The wedding will take place in the early winter and the couple will reside in the San Joaquin valley.

Equally interesting is the betrothal of Miss Florence Wilson and O. H. Smart. The young people met at college, where both were prominently identified with student activities. Miss Wilson is a member of the Delta Gamma sorority and is possessed of marked dramatic ability. Her home is in Los Angeles. Smart is enrolled in the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He is a student in the engineering department.

TEA AT COUNTRY CLUB.
The Claremont Country Club was the setting for a prettily appointed tea yesterday. Mrs. McKee Sherrard entertained a congenial coterie of her nearest friends, making Mrs. Robert C. Littlefield the complimented guest. Among those who enjoyed Mrs. Sherrard's hospitality were: Mrs. Harvey Toy, Mrs. Fritz Van Sicken, Mrs. Bert Scott, Mrs. Charles Gibbs, Mrs. Homer Craig, Mrs. Ernest Porter, Mrs. Louis Schlessinger and Mrs. Herbert Clark.

FOR TITLED GUEST.
The James Henry McLafferty will entertain at their dinner guest tonight Lady Lawrence of London, a charming and cultured woman, who has spent much time in traveling about the world. She made the acquaintance of her host and hostess while on a visit to the Hawaiian Islands. She is staying at the St. Francis, while her daughter, the Honorable Miss Lawrence, and Miss Persival, are in the Yosemite. Lady Lawrence is related to some of the most distinguished English families and has been the close friend of famous poets and artists. Among her friends in the past were Elizabeth and Robert Browning.

RECENT WEDDING.
At noon yesterday Mrs. Beverly White became the bride of William Foss Hobbs, a prominent business man of this city. The Rev. Edward Lamb Parsons was the officiating clergyman. Miss Sue Johnson was her sister's maid of honor and E. R. Peterson of San Francisco acted as best man. The wedding took place after honeymoon through the southern part of the state Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs will make their home in Oakland.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.
Miss Winifred Hoesford was the recipient of several pretty social honors during the week. Mrs. Frank Gannon entertained for her on Thursday, a gay of cards and a miscellaneous shower being features of the afternoon. Those present were Miss Winifred Hoesford, Miss Lalla Gannon, Miss Minnie Kist, Miss Ethel Black, Miss Gertrude Black, Miss Kathleen Hoesford, Miss Jennie Hoesford, Miss Julia Loesch, Miss Katherine Loesch, Miss Scheitner, Mrs. E. T. Hoesford, Mrs. W. J. Hoesford, Mrs. Klith Harrower and the hostess.

HERE AND THERE.
Gleason Potter and Ralph Potter have returned to Oakland after a visit at the H. W. Rivett home in Sacramento.

Mrs. W. E. Russ of Los Angeles was a recent guest in this city. She was entertained at the home of her son, Christopher Russ.

W. E. Snow is back from a month's visit at Kyburg.

Mrs. F. J. Dunlap spent the week in Sacramento, where she was entertained at the residence of the William Beckmans.

Mrs. Robert Mitchell has been a guest in the capital city at the home of Mrs. George B. Carr.

MISS COOK HONORED.
Miss Fanny Cook, whose wedding to James Garfield Clark will take place on September 26, was the motif of a pretty affair at which Mrs. Margaret Pratt entertained on Thursday evening. The bride-to-be is the daughter of the late John Cook, a well known capitalist of Berkeley. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark of Eagle avenue, Alameda.

About fifty guests were asked to share the pleasures of the evening at which Miss Cook was honored.

"PASS RECALL MEASURE," URGES GOVERNOR

"WOMEN WILL SOON VOTE," SAYS JOHNSON

AT AN ADDRESS DELIVERED IN BERKELEY

Control of Judiciary Should Be in the Hands of the People, Declares Chief Executive BERKELEY, Sept. 2. — A school of instruction, with popular lecturers on the constitutional amendments to be voted upon October 10, was in session for two hours at the High school auditorium last evening.

Governor Johnson delivered the first of a series of addresses to be delivered in the State on the direct legislation measures which have been framed in the interest of popular government. His next speech will be under the auspices of the Direct Legislation League in San Francisco next Monday evening.

Fifteen hundred people crowded the auditorium, and a large number of vice-presidents occupied seats upon the platform. President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California and numerous college professors and students heard the discussion, which was participated in by Assemblyman C. C. Young of Berkeley, John Eshleman, president of the State Railroad Commission; Max Thelen and Johnson. A huge bonfire blazed in front of the building and assisted in drawing a crowd.

PEOPLE TO RULE.

"The people want to rule," was Johnson's opening statement. "They have sense enough to rule. It is the purpose of some of these proposed amendments to give the people that privilege. Those of us who began to reconstruct the State government for the present began at the same time to build for the future. It is not enough to take from those who have ruled for so long the powers which they have held. If the present administration is to be of lasting benefit, it is its duty to build for the future. When that power was taken away the thought came: How may we best arm the people so that they may protect themselves against fraud and aggression, corporate greed and political chicanery? Casting about for a method to repel aggression and continue this government as you desire, we took the only measures possible, the initiative, referendum and recall. These means, experimental though they may be, and 'mere nostrums,' as some great men assert, are the only devices by which popular government may be retained.

"It is fortunate that so much interest is being shown in favor of the measures. For up to two weeks ago there was a scheme to prevent the election being held. Despite these machinations, this election will be held in October, and we are going to vote to permit the recall of any public officer, whether he be governor or judge. (Applause.)

FAVORS RECALL.

"The initiative, referendum and recall cannot be honestly opposed by any one in favor of democracy. There is nothing illogical about them.

"The arguments made against the recall of the judiciary are made against all direct legislation.

"I make no attack upon the courts or judges, but it is self-evident to all that the last stand of corporate aggression is in the courts. (Applause.) Realizing this, all the eyes are turned upon those who would place the courts under the same rules as other public officers are subject to. We can understand why such men as Lorimer, who have named judges in the past, have such a desire to preserve for all the rest of us the judicial orb.

"The most specious plea of the lawyer at times is that of the 'fancied ill.' The same sort of argument is being used against the recall of the judiciary. It is no real argument.

"BORDERING ON ANARCHY."

"The movement is declared a 'nostrum' and 'bordering on anarchy.' It is declared that a different rule should apply to the judiciary. Everyone believes in respect and reverence for a judge just so long as his acts merit respect and reverence, and no longer. By elevating a man to the judiciary you do not change his character. He retains the same desires and ideals. Those who, under our system, say that more is due than he commands perverts the fundamental principle of right. You have the ability, intelligence and discrimination to select a judge; you have enough of the same qualities to vote upon whether you will return him to the bench at the end of six years. But, according to the arguments advanced, you have not the power to recall a judge at the end of four years.

"This country is founded upon the idea that any man may vote if he is a citizen. No particular class shall rule in California. In this fight against corporate aggression and oppression we have been engaged in kicking to pieces old fetters. Among these are the OAKLAND TRIBUNE and the Los Angeles Times. The Tribune is drawing near when this aggression and oppression shall end. Progress in the movement is being made all over the west."

PEOPLE IN POWER.

"The initiative, you understand, empowers the people to do direct that which they now delegate almost entirely to the legislature. Under its provision the people will be given a chance to effect legislation which will better meet the requirements of the times. In this way the people will be given a check on legislation that is unsatisfactory to them. This agitation has been going on for a long time throughout the country in regard to the advisability of the initiative, referendum and recall. Our friends on the other side have been forced to yield outpost after outpost until there is practically no serious opposition to the measure as a whole. At the recall of the judiciary those on the other side have stopped short, however. Here they have determined to make a last desperate stand. Amassing all their forces, they will attempt to defeat the very object of direct legislation. The courts are the last bulwark, the last resort of the corporation. If they can retain dishonored judges in power they will be enabled to defeat the will of the people. Too much force is laid by the opponents of these measures on fancied abuses of this power by the people. Just a short time ago a veto message denied the power to a new state to recall its judges, thus interfering with its rights to make its own laws and govern its own affairs.

VOTES FOR WOMEN.

"I want the women who will soon be voting to consider this matter. Our friends on the other side pretend to believe that in the event a judge rendered an unpopular decision when the recall was in force, the people might recall him during a temporary wave of clamor and disgust regardless of whether or not the decision was in accordance with the law and the statute books. No honest judge need fear if he attempt honestly to interpret the laws.

"We hear a great deal about the rabble and the mob. I have never been able to find out who the rabble in this country are. All the people rule in California. Some of us may imagine ourselves a little better, or that we are better educated than some of our neighbors. I might be regarded by some as being as of the rabble.

"We are breaking up nests of corruption in the hope of restoring the State government to the people. If you believe in this form of government give us your loyal support. While you may not agree with me on many things, by taking into your hands the reins of State government you are building for the future. You will have this power long after I am dead, buried and perhaps forgotten.

IT SUITS JOHNSON.

"The corporate interests may not like my administration. The poisoned portion of the press may not like it and many of you may not agree with me, but it suits me, and you are going to get three and a half years more of this kind of administration.

"It is my purpose to try and put into the hands of the people of California the power to govern their own affairs. In the past that privilege has been denied them by the corporations which would now defeat that very object by opposing with all the cunning at their command the recall of the judiciary, a portion of which they hope to control once they are in office. This is the situation that confronts the people of California. In this campaign in the interests of the amendments which I have discussed, we need the help of the best people of our State. If you think this a good law do all you can to bring about its passage on October 10."

WORK OF ADMINISTRATION.

Governor Johnson spoke briefly of the aims and work of his administration, which, he declared, had begun with the purpose of getting as close to the people as possible. He told of the financial saving made in various State institutions, making special reference to a reduction in the cost of ink at the State printing office and to a lessening of expenditure in the management of the San Francisco waterfront. He concluded his address with the assertion that the power should be placed in the people's hands by which this administration could be continued.

J. D. Galloway, president of the City Club, under the auspices of which the meeting was held, presided, and first introduced Assemblyman C. C. Young, of this city, who referred to the printed bulletin distributed to the auditors, which contained arguments for or against the amendments. The pamphlet was prepared by a committee of the City Club composed of George E. Burlingame, Frank V. Cornish, Roy R. Dempster, Max Thelen and Young.

The assemblyman urged the importance of voting for the county charter amendment, permitting counties to elect boards of freeholders and frame charters, as cities are doing, and providing that boards of supervisors shall be elected; that other county officials may be appointed, and that their compensation may be fixed by the charter. Young declared that the amendment would abolish the farce kept up by the legislature, which regularly passed bills to raise the salaries of county officers, that legislators may pay their political debts. Young admitted

GOVERNOR HIRAM W. JOHNSON, who, at Berkeley last night began a "campaign of education" with reference to the proposed constitutional amendments. The Governor spoke in favor of the recall of the judiciary.

DYNAMITER SENTENCED TO 25 YEARS IN FOLSOM

Judge B. F. Bledsoe Severely Condemns Act of Charles H. Picard While Passing Judgment on Convicted Prisoner

Severely condemning dynamiting and denouncing those who resort to this extreme "system of philosophy" as means of vengeance or to right political or social wrongs, Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe of San Bernardino county, sitting this forenoon in the criminal department of the Superior court, sentenced Charles H. Picard to serve twenty-five years in the penitentiary at Folsom for this crime.

Picard was convicted by a jury last Tuesday of planting a mine in a square show, which was exploded while officers of the law were levying an attachment, almost killed Constable Al Kihn of Alameda, and jeopardized the lives of Deputy Sheriffs John E. Reilly, Bert Brown and Edward R. McDonnell. His defense was that at the time the crime was committed he was insane over domestic troubles, and that he acted the infernal machine for his divorced wife and nobody else.

FIVE DAYS' STAY.

Preliminary to passing sentence upon Picard Judge Bledsoe brought out from the prisoner that he was 47 years old, a machinist and architect from Crocker and that he has resided in the United States about thirty-one years, being a native of France. When asked if he had any reason to give why judgment should not be pronounced upon Picard he replied "No." He showed considerable nervousness while standing at the bar along Assistant District Attorney Hynes and his counsel, Attorney Austin Lewis, but beyond this displayed absolutely no emotion. At the request of his attorney, Picard was granted a five days' stay of judgment to enable him to close up his private affairs before entering upon his long term of imprisonment.

"There are some forms of philosophy," said Judge Bledsoe in passing sentence, "which seem to tend to excuse the use of force and the use of might in opposition to the dictates of organized society, but in my judgment that system has no proper place in a country like ours. It can have no proper place in any civilized community, and when there is found an example of such, one who is a devotee of that philosophy and who by his acts demonstrates his unfitness to be one among a number of free people, and demonstrates his unfitness to be one of a community where self-government is the condition of things—when such is demonstrated, I say, his acts and his conduct ought to be severely frowned down upon, because they speak only for the total annihilation of government, the disruption of the community and all that the community stands for.

NOTHING TO RECOMMEND.

"There can be some little excuse for a man who feels himself aggrieved to stand out like a man and assert his rights, and do it in a way in which everybody will be advised of his intentions and every one will have a fair and square show. The individual, however, who under cover of darkness or secrecy, lays, as was done here, a hidden mine, the very tendency and purpose of which is to blow the individual into eternity who may come across it, has nothing to recommend his conduct, has nothing in himself or in his philosophy, or in the spirit or purpose of his being, to commend him to any community or to any individual, and in my mind I cannot have anything but the utmost contempt for such a system, and for motives which will prompt the doing of such a deed as was committed in this case. There is no question here of the defendant's guilt. He admitted it upon the stand, but attempted to justify himself in that he has the idea, the intention, and was moved by the motive to 'get even' with his wife—'not get even' with her, but wreak vengeance upon her; and the fact that some one else, an entirely innocent individual, suffered in consequence of his act, lessens the prisoner's crime any. On the other hand this makes the crime all the more heinous and hideous, it occurs to me. In the minds of right-minded and right-thinking people, a community ought to be taught that such things as this are not to be countenanced; that such a scheme of private vengeance does not fit in with our system, with our form of government and with our present civilization.

DETERRENT TO OTHERS.

"The purpose of punishment is for two reasons: First, that the individual who has committed a wrong may be deprived of his liberty and thereby presumably deprived of the opportunity. If he shall be so minded, of committing like crimes in a community; and, secondly, as a deterrent to others. Particularly as a deterrent to others do I think that the court, in an offense of this sort, should set its face like flint against the commission of such crime and make it known that the officers of the law and all others who are concerned with its enforcement will not stand for or permit such crimes to go unwhipped of justice."

Dorothy Whitney to Marry Financier

Wedding Date of Heiress and Willard D. Straight Set for September 7.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2. — It was announced that the marriage of Miss Dorothy Whitney, daughter of the late Wm. C. Whitney, to Willard D. Straight, will take place September 7 at Capt. Sur-Montevau, Switzerland, where the bride is staying. Straight has charge of an American banking house in China and their honeymoon trip will take the couple to their home in that country.

Scrap and Junk to Be Removed From Canal

Dealer in Old Metal Who Gets Job Must Remove Debris Within 3 Years.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2. — All the scrap and junk which was formerly part of the machinery of the French Panama Canal company, and which now litters the line of the "great ditch" will be cleared away before the canal is completed. Bids will be opened here September 5 from dealers in scrap metal for the purchase and removal of the debris within three years.

WAR GAME IN ARCTIC MAPS TRIED TO KILL THE EAST HAS SECRETS MUST BE CHANGED CHILD AND HERSELF

Surprises Await Officers of the Fleet Under Admiral Osterhaus.

Problems Will Be Sprung on Crews and Commanders Unawares.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2. — For the great war game now in progress off the Chesapeake Capes, Rear-Admiral Hugo Osterhaus, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, holds a secret program, and not a captain of a ship knows what he may be called upon to do in the way of target practice from hour to hour. The scheme is to spring problems upon commanding officers and their crews unawares, just as they would be sprung in time of war.

This, it is believed, will promote the efficiency of the navy personnel and demonstrate those who can be counted upon to meet trying conditions without warning.

LONG RANGE FIRING.

The success of the dreadnaught Delaware in its long range firing at the old battleship San Marcos in Tanager Sound a few days ago, proves again to naval men here, that the combats of the future will be begun when the opposing forces look to each other like specks on the horizon. The Delaware made a number of hits at 16,000 yards, or more than nine miles. Of course she missed many times, but from the fact that the gunners were able to shatter the old hulk at that great distance naval officers are convinced that the battles of the future will begin at that, or a greater distance.

GIRLS ESCORT MAYOR M'CARTHY

Union Labor Candidate Delivers Series of Addresses During Evening.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2. — Mayor P. H. McCarthy, candidate for mayor on the Union Labor ticket, addressed several meetings last night. At three of the meetings floral tributes were given to him by the ladies, and at Ocean and Harold avenues he was met by eight little girls, who escorted him to the platform. Here a concert was given in his honor by the committee in charge of the meetings.

All of the meetings but one were held in the Thirty-third district. The next meeting was in Excelsior Hall at Onondaga avenue and Mission street, where he was greeted by the largest crowd of the evening. Several men attempted to carry him to the platform, but with the assistance of his escorts he was able to push his way through the crowd.

From there he went to the meeting of the Railroad Men's McCarthy Club at Cheney and Diamond streets. He made a union labor speech here, calling upon all laboring men to support him, as he said he had always supported them, while his opponent had not spent any of his life working for the uplift of the plain people.

At a meeting of the Elkhorn Athletic Club, 2008 O'Farrell street, McCarthy's candidacy was endorsed. Speeches were made by John J. Conlon, Max Schiller, J. Fontaine and P. Lannon. McCarthy held an open-air meeting at noon today at Mission and East streets, and in the evening will have meetings at Twenty-fourth and Potrero and in the Brewery Workers' Hall, at East and Mission.

'Metal' Hat Is Not Like That of Yester Years

No! New Headgear for Women Is Even More Fearfully Made.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2. — The newest wonder in the windows of the Fifth-avenue milliners is the "metal" hat, which the public is assured will be the proper thing for the modish young woman this fall. Some of the hats are reminiscent of the helmet, some are flat and broad, but they are all different from hats of other years.

They are not simple, and they are not cheap. Flowers and feathers, lace and fur, gold and silver, are employed lavishly.

The metallic effect is obtained in a variety of ways, including such novelties as metal fringe, silver flowers, bronzed flowers and gold and silver meshes and laces.

WOMAN CAUSES ARREST OF TAXICAB DRIVER

After taking a ride in a taxicab and paying Bert Young, the chauffeur, what she thought was a silver dollar, Mrs. J. E. Earl, of 718 Seventeenth street, discovered last night, to her dismay, that she had paid the driver a gold piece. She hastened to notify the police, and Young was sought and a demand made upon him for the return of the gold piece.

Explorers Find Rivers Where Not Suspected and Make Other Discoveries.

Disappearance of Game Makes Trips Into Frozen North Difficult.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2. — All the present-day Arctic maps will have to be remodeled as a result of the work of the Anderson-Stefansson expedition of the American Museum of Natural History. The explorers, who will return to civilization next year, after four years of exploration on the Alaskan coast, give some details of their findings in a series of letters just received by the museum authorities.

They are bringing back complete surveys of Langton bay, Horton river and several other uncharted regions.

IMPORTANT RIVER.

The Horton river was discovered by Dr. Richardson early in the nineteenth century, and for a brief period a few miles of it appeared on the maps and charts published about the middle of the last century. But there were no further discoveries of it and it cannot be found on any of the modern maps. It appears that the river is one of the most important of the Northern streams, being more than four hundred miles in length.

The report tells of the discovery of an unknown, unnamed river, about thirty miles long and very broad, emptying into Langton bay. It also refers to the Riviere La Ronciere, which is drawn in a free hand fashion with many flourishes on all modern maps, rising near Bear Lake and flowing northward. Stefansson has now shown this stream to be non-existent.

SEE FIRST WHITES.

Of two hundred and fifty Indians seen by his party in the summer of 1910, only one, Stefansson says, had ever seen a white man. Several tribes living near Coronadon Gulf had never been visited by a white man. Stefansson declared that the difficulties of exploration are becoming greater every year, chiefly because of the rapid disappearance of game and the inability of the country to support the expeditions. It seems likely that the features of the closing season will be able to visit these regions, the explorer said.

ENTRIES CLOSE FOR AIR RACE

International Balloon Contest Will Start From Kansas City, October 5.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 2. — Entries were closed yesterday for the James Gordon Bennett international balloon race, which will start from Kansas City October 5. Nine balloons are entered, the pick of the three nations ranking highest in the ballooning game. The contestants will be:

United States—Lieutenant Frank P. Lahm, U. S. A.; Captain John Berry and William M. Assman of St. Louis.

Germany—Lieutenant Vogt, Ingenieur Gerke and Freiherr Von Pohl.

France—Emile Dubonnet, Alfred Le Blanc and Welby Jourdan.

Two balloons have been entered to contest for the Lahm cup, which may be won by any balloon establishing a new record in the United States. The balloons in this contest will be the Kansas City II, piloted by Captain E. H. Honeywell, and the Tokpeka II.

Arrangements were completed yesterday for an inter-city balloon race, to start from Topeka September 20. The cities to enter are Kansas City, Topeka, St. Louis and Salt Lake City.

SCHOONER PILES UP ON ISLAND

Lumber-Laden Comet Strands on Rock in Santa Barbara Channel.

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 2. — The lumber schooner Comet, loaded with 500,000 feet of lumber, bound for San Pedro, was wrecked on Richardson's rock, seven miles from San Miguel island, Wednesday night and then drifted ashore, where it lies.

Captain Borgenson arrived at Santa Barbara from Santa Rosa Island. He returned last night to complete an investigation as to whether there is any hope of saving the vessel. The crew of eight men are on the ship, having returned to it after taking to small boats early Thursday and rowing to Santa Rosa Island. According to Capt. Borgenson a faulty chronometer was to blame for the accident. Richardson's rock is at the extreme upper end of Channel Islands. It has no light.

Mother Who Attempted to Chloroform Daughter Sent to Agnew's Asylum.

Miss Agnes Marcovich of Alameda Adjudged to Be of Unbalanced Mind.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2. — Mrs. Agnes Marcovich, 1408 Ninth avenue, Alameda, who last Saturday morning attempted to chloroform her 9-year-old daughter Ellen and then take her own life by the same process out on the Ocean Beach near the Cliff House, was committed to the Agnew Insane Asylum this morning upon orders from the Superior Court. The woman took her daughter to the beach and held her saturated handkerchief to her nostrils until she became unconscious, then she placed it over her own face and lay down to die.

The fresh air revived the girl and she gave the alarm. Both were taken to the Park Emergency hospital, where they recovered. The mother was later held in the Detention Hospital pending an examination as to insanity.

In explaining the reason for her rash attempt the woman said that she was grieving over the death of her husband, who formerly conducted a restaurant on Broadway in Oakland and who recently died. However, there were found among her effects papers which indicated that she had recently paid $250 to a matrimonial agency on Twelfth street in Oakland and given a receipt showing that her fee would be good until such time as she would be satisfied in her search for a second husband.

JOHN D.'S FOLKS VISIT HIS HOME

Entire Clan, Kids and All, Ride There in State Free of Cost.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Sept. 3. — The annual reunion of the Rockefeller family will end late today with the return of their delegates from a pilgrimage to Germantown, the ancestral seat of the original American Rockefellers. A vote of thanks to John D. Rockefeller for his hospitality in opening his home at Pocantico Hills to the delegates yesterday will be one of the features of the closing session. The excursion to Pocantico Hills is unanimously voted the feature of the week's festivities. The entire "family" went from here to Tarrytown on a special train which Mr. Rockefeller provided. Dinner was served on the train, and stages were waiting at the station.

EXPRESS WONDER.

There were many expressions of wonderment during the drive up the fine roads through Mr. Rockefeller's estate, and later when the party was escorted through the house, the sunken gardens, the fountains, the stables, the sun parlor, temple of love and Japanese tea gardens.

Although the association has been in existence for several years, this was the first trip to the estate on Pocantico Hills.

J. DOWNEY HARVEY IS A BANKRUPT

Former Ocean Shore R. R. Promoter Fought Action of Creditors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2. — J. Downey Harvey, capitalist and former promoter of the Ocean Shore Railway, was adjudged a bankrupt yesterday by Judge de Haven in the United States District Court. This action on the part of the court was purely formal, as it was affirming the decision of Referee in Bankruptcy Kretz, who adjudged Downey Harvey a bankrupt two weeks ago.

Under the law, Downey Harvey, through his attorneys, will have two weeks in which to file a schedule of his liabilities and assets. Should he refuse to do this any of his creditors can file the schedule.

The action to have himself adjudged a bankrupt was vigorously fought by Downey Harvey. The suit was instituted by creditors of the Ocean Shore Railway, who charged that Harvey became a bankrupt when he allowed C. C. Moore, who held his promissory note, to secure judgment on the same. Referee in Bankruptcy Kretz held that Downey Harvey had committed an act of bankruptcy.

ELECTION AT OMAHA.

OMAHA, Sept. 2. — The residents of Omaha are today voting on the proposition to adopt the commission form of government under a law passed by the last legislature. The plan has the support of all the newspapers and practically all the commercial organizations of the city.

opened yesterday, and the enclosure was thronged by 600 youngsters. Miss McKee was in attendance in the section of the grounds, while J. Clark presided over the boys.

MARTINONI SHOWS STEEN HOW GAME IS TO BE PLAYED

Wolverton's Latest Discovery Pitches Rings Around the Veteran and Oaks Have Easy Time Beating Beavers

Manager Harry Wolverton, with faith in the youngster, sent a cub, Giacomo Martinoni, in the pitcher's box at Recreation Park yesterday afternoon to beat the Beavers. Walter McCredie sent a tried veteran to the box to beat the Oaks and the result was a complete and well-earned victory for the cub.

And why was it a victory for the cub? Simply because he pitched a clear, hard game of ball, showed plenty of stamina and nerve and did not quit, while behind him, anxious to see him win, eight men played a bang up ball game.

As for the veteran, it need only be said that when Oakland began to hammer the offering of the old boy he laid down his burdens and made good the declaration that there is a streak of yellow in the make up of the Beavers from Bill Steen up and down.

With the announcement that Martinoni would do the hurrying for the Oaks lots of those fans on the ground thought Wolverton was loose somewhere, but Harry knows a ball tosser when he sees him and the youngster more than made good.

Two bingles, neither out of the infield, was all the huskies from the north could get and methinks that my friend was a wee bit generous in not giving Wolverton a bingle instead of a bingle on the pokes he hit to the captain.

As for Steen, well Bill went nicely till the Oaks got his defense and began to pound him extra hard. Then he laid down his burdens and put himself in the O'Rourke class.

OAKS FIRST TO SCORE.

Steen took his saffron powders in the sixth inning. With Mitze out of the way he booted Martinoni's poke and then made a bunk base to second. A pass, a stolen base and a two-bagger by Cutshaw sent two tallies over the rubber. Back to the bench went Bill after the seizure was over, oozing valier from every pore and then in the sixth he exploded.

Zacher opened the sixth and took a poke on the dome. Wolverton sacrificed and Big John, who seems to always be there at some stage of the game, laid a double to right. Mitze poked a double to left and Peckinpaugh robbed Martinoni of a hit. Hoffman was there with a single and so was Wares and three tallies were over. With the use of going farther with the tale.

All that need be added is this, that with Martinoni looking a find and Ables, Pernell, Christian and Gregory shooting over in great style, the Oaks are the favorites to beat for the rag. Here's the score:

Diamond Dust

What a pity it is that Sacramento can't find a man to put at the head of the team that can get a winner, or, at least, an occasional runner, out of that senatorial crew. Individually the team is a fairly good one and should not lose the consistency that it does. But this fellow Eater O'Rourke is lacking in ability to control, and that is all there is to it.

With the Senators showing any kind of form, the league race would be more exciting than it is. If they could but keep Hogan's bunch from winning right along Oakland's chances would be a whole lot better. At that, confidence is supreme; that Wolverton will win the pennant, but should rates decrease otherwise, he still will have the satisfaction of knowing that he has given Oakland the best team that they ever had, as well as having the best team in the Coast League.

Pitcher Orvil Kibroy of the Oakland team was handed his unconditional release yesterday afternoon by Wolverton. This slabster was purchased from the St. Paul team at the beginning of the season, and was one of the hardest workers in the lineup. Somehow he could never strike his gait here and was not a winner.

A story comes from Stockton that Earl Maggart will play with Cy. Moring's team tomorrow, and the story further says that he does not hurt himself by playing in that team. Tub Hackett and Overall are ineligible players—outlays, according to the ruling of the National Commission, and if Maggart plays with them he will hurt his standing, and that is all there is to it.

Wolverton says if Maggart plays with the so-called outlays, which would keep him out of organized base ball.

Walter McCredie donned a uniform for a few seconds yesterday, as his suspension had expired, and then he went to the stand near the press box and watched the game. He denied that the draft of Kuhn by Cleveland was a cover-up, but we were ones in base ball know enough about the workings of the big leagues and little leagues to put little stock in the story.

Peckinpaugh was one big gun at short-stop yesterday and several times out off hits. Had those hit his way got by him Oakland would have had a dozen runs and just as many hits.

Bert Coy, the starting kid, ripped off a liner to right in the eighth inning yesterday and earned himself a new lid, for he hit that big, white spot full in the center.

Tomorrow comes a double-header and on Monday likewise. Two of the games will be played at Eater's Park, before lunch, while the other two will be played over the bay.

STUDENT BODIES TO ARRANGE DEFINITE RUGBY RULES

BERKELEY, Sept. 2.—To definitely settle rules to govern the style of Rugby football to be played between colleges on the coast this fall, members of the inter-collegiate rules committee of Stanford and the University of California will meet at 8 o'clock this evening at the St. Francis hotel in San Francisco to discuss minor changes have been made in the English Rugby Union this year, the main intention at the conference rotating around the point as to whether or not the committee should be adopted in the colleges here.

Coch James Schaefer, Graduate Manager Milton Farmer and Captain Amos Elliott will represent the local institution at the meeting, while Coach Presley, Coach Burbank, Coach Presley and Captain Erb will represent the Stanford contingent.

Preliminary plans do not call for any radical revision in the regulations of the game now existing between the two schools.

ELLA MC. WINS STANFORD STAKES IN STRAIGHT HEATS

Matawan, the Favorite, Is Taken Ill and Withdraws; 2:12 Trot Is Won by Donasham

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 2.—J. W. Zibbe, who was the owner of the Stanford stakes in straight heats in the sixth day of the State Fair meet this afternoon, Matawan was the favorite. After leading to the stretch and finishing second in the first heat the colt was overcome in the second and was taken to the stable a sick horse. Ella Mc. was never in danger, as she entirely outclassed the remaining field. Valentine Girl and Expedito fought it out for second money in three heats, the bay filly winning.

Donasham was an easy winner in the 2:12 consolation trot and took the race in straight heats. This event was for horses that failed to get in the money in the big $5,000 purse 2:12 trot, which was won by Kingbrook Wednesday afternoon. Donasham was second to Donasham. Expedito finished third and Lady Sutter fourth. All of these horses won the same position in the three heats.

Today will be the great day for amateur drivers. There will be three events carded exclusively for non-professionals. The first event will be a 2:15 class pace, a fifth purse, the second will be a 2:20 class trot and the third will be a 2:15 class pace for three cups.

ELLA MC MUCH THE BEST.

The biggest purse of the meet for the five-eighths mile dash. The best running horse in Northern California will be entered. A $400 purse has been set.

Matawan drew to the front in the Stanford stakes and was consistent in the first heat. The colt led to the stretch a length to the good, but broke on the last quarter and was passed by Ella Mc. who finished in the advance.

Valentine Girl and Bon Volante fought it out for third, but the brown colt was the winner by a length. The colt was taken to the stable after the race. Ella Mc. took things her own way in the second heat and led the field two lengths to the finish, with Bon Volante in second position. Matawan yielded to the pain that was racking his body and dropped out of the race.

In the third heat, the colt was taken to the stable after the race. Ella Mc. took things her own way in the second heat and led the field two lengths to the finish, with Bon Volante in second position. Matawan yielded to the pain that was racking his body and dropped out of the race.

REAL ESTATE

Come, Farm Along Our Railroad

We have just completed the CENTRAL CALIFORNIA TRACTION line, an electric interurban railway running between Sacramento and Stockton, at a cost of over THREE MILLION dollars.

Before construction work began, several thousands acres of high-class land, through which our road has been built, were purchased at low prices.

There are four distinct reasons why this land was purchased.

First—Settlers were needed who will till the soil and produce freight and passenger business for the railroad.

Second—Speculators might buy up these lands and would hold them for big profits, and thereby the railroad would have to wait for its shipping.

Third—Special inducements could not then be offered to farmers if the owners of the land were not interested in the railroad.

Fourth—Producers along the railroad were more desirable than profits from the sale of land, therefore the land must be sold at much lower prices.

WE WANT SETTLERS IMMEDIATELY

The sooner they begin to produce the sooner the revenue for the railroad will begin. You will come and cultivate a small farm along our electric road and you will be offered every inducement and co-operation. You can have a farm on easy time payments; you can have the advice of agriculturists, horticulturists and soil experts; if you desire you can have your house and improvements built for you; your land and fence along your pump in stalling and can pay for same on easy payments; in fact, every co-operation will be given to get you started. Any effort on your part will spell success.

The land is located between SACRAMENTO, STOCKTON and SAN FRANCISCO, CO. giving a farmer first call from either of these three large market cities, which represent a population of over ONE and a HALF MILLION people.

The owners of this land not being in the real estate business their exclusive selling agents.

We advise you to act IMMEDIATELY.

WEEKLY MARKET SUMMARY ROSEATE

Marked by Relaxation of Pressure Against Leading Securities.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Some signs appeared in the stock market this week of relaxation of the pressure which was directed against securities almost continuously in the month just ended. Although frequent effects were made to extend the decline, little headway was gained in that direction, and several times the market developed an upward tendency. This was attributed largely to short coverings, rather than to a change in the trend of opinion as to the outlook. Anxiety as to the labor situation on the Harriman railroad was aggravated by signs of unrest among the employees of other systems, and it was felt that this factor would act as a deterrent to stock market activity until it should be cleared up. July railroad returns in many cases were unexpectedly favorable, although some of the larger systems, including the Harriman lines, showed a large falling off in receipts. The government cotton report had little effect upon the stock market, despite its unfavorable character, as it had been largely discounted by earlier private estimates.

STOLEN PAINTING MAY BE RETURNED

Thief Demands $30,000 for Restoration of Da Vinci Masterpiece.

PARIS, Sept. 2.—"Mona Lisa," Leonardo da Vinci's masterpiece, recently stolen from the Louvre, may be returned to the government by the thief, according to a rumor circulated here today. In a morning paper, which has an editor connected with the government, there appeared a small advertisement following an editorial, which read:

"Mona Lisa shall wait."
It is learned on good authority that the advertisement was confidentially explained by a government employee as being addressed to the man who was the authorities that he had "Mona Lisa," and would return the picture for $30,000 and immunity from prosecution. According to rumor, the thief is the same who stole the Egyptian and Phoenician statues, one of which is said he returned for ransom, thereby paying the way to negotiations for "Mona Lisa."

The rumor is that the stolen picture will be returned Saturday, but whether this means tomorrow or next week is not known.

TORREON IS STILL SCENE OF TURMOIL

Only Place in Mexico Where Conditions Are in Unsatisfactory Condition.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Torreon is the only place in Mexico at present where conditions are unsatisfactory, according to advice to the state department today. There was there the great Chinese massacre occurred during the revolution. A number of local agitators are imbued with an anti-foreign disposition. Conditions in Lower California have greatly improved since the arrival of the federal soldiers in that section and normal atmosphere pervades at Morelos, where the revolutionary trouble was experienced in disarming the revolutionaries. The disappearance of trouble in other parts of the republic it is believed the Mexican government can soon turn its attention to Torreon.

WELL KNOWN ATTORNEY INJURED

Crittenden Thornton Run Down by an Auto at Street Crossing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—Crittenden Thornton, the attorney and well-known member of the Bohemian Club, was knocked down and seriously injured by a speeding taxicab last night in Sutter street, near Jones, and is now at the Lane Hospital in a dangerous condition. With W. B. Hopkins he was walking down Sutter street, and in attempting to cross the thoroughfare was struck by an automobile driven by a chauffeur named Holtz. Thornton was hurled to the sidewalk, where he lay unconscious. The cab was filled with passengers. After giving his name to Hopkins, Holtz went for another car. Hopkins hailed the touring car of O. Schutz and took the injured man to the Bohemian Club, where he was attended by Dr. Rupert Blue.

Subsequently he was taken to the Central Emergency Hospital and it was found that he was suffering from concussion of the brain, abrasions of the scalp and possible fractures of the skull. He was then removed to the Lane Hospital. Holtz, the taxicab driver, gave himself up to the police. He was charged with battery and released on bail.

HAS TOE AMPUTATED.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—After working all night unloading a cargo on pier 36, John Baban, 1034 Alabama street, was injured by a heavy iron plate dropping upon his right toe, which necessitated its being amputated at the Harbor Hospital.

SHOULDER STRAPS PRIVATE'S AIM

Officers' Row Looks Better Than Barracks to Frank Bloom.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Private Frank Bloom, on whose account President Taft reprimanded Colonel Joseph Garrard, commanding the military post at Fort Myer, Virginia, because that officer disapproved the promotion of the private on the ground that he was a Jew, was examined under the President's orders at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., yesterday, for a second lieutenant in the army. Bloom failed in the preliminary examination, and it was then that Colonel Garrard endorsed his papers, calling attention to the fact that he is the son of the post tailor at Fort Myer, who is a Jew, and stating that he would not desire him in his command as an officer and a social and military associate. In admonishing Colonel Garrard, the President waived the examination which Bloom failed to pass and authorized him to take the final test yesterday. This will determine his fitness for promotion.

MARK TWAIN'S OLD HOME GIVEN TO HANNIBAL CITY

HANNIBAL, Mo., Sept. 2.—the boyhood home of Mark Twain on High street, built by his father, John M. Clemens, in 1838, was bought yesterday by George A. Mahan, a wealthy attorney, and his wife, and was given by them to the city of Hannibal. The old home is a two-story frame house in a good state of preservation. It is only a few feet away from the alley where "Tom Sawyer" had the boys paint the fence. "Huckleberry Finn" lived at the other end of the alley. It is a block to Holiday Hill, and across the street was the "newspaper" office of "Tom's" father.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

That the public may be better informed on a subject of such importance as that of coal and wood, THE TRIBUNE herewith presents the matter to its readers in a brief outline, and will continue to do so, in this space, for an indefinite period, giving a summary each week of that which seems to be of the greatest interest to all.
It is advisable, whenever possible, to purchase coal as early as is convenient to do so. This obviates the dirt that arises after the coal is wet or damp, the disadvantage of handling it in the rain, and the economy of purchasing at a time when fuel is cheap. Later in the season, if past years are any indication of the future, the price of coal is higher, and conditions may arise to make this one being urgent now, and purchasing at the present time.
The coal dealers are generally pretty well stocked up this month, and many cargoes are coming in.
COAL VS. GAS.
Testimonial letters by the hundreds could be procured from those who have found coal and wood to be far superior to gas. Did one ever hear of asphyxiation from coal, while such cases are common with gas? Headaches among women working over gas ranges, or sitting in a room with the gas burning in a grate, are quite prevalent, and to remedy this, many new homes are having coal grates built instead of gas.
When flowers are killed through the gas fumes, what must it be to a human being? These are things that should receive serious consideration.

FRUITVALE DISTRICT

Look Out

When a fire splutters, it is a sign of dust or slag in the coal that is used. That is not the sort of coal we sell. Our coal is clean and pure. That's why it burns so easily. That's why it heats so well. It saves you money in the long run, because there are no clinkers. That is the reason Frederickson does the business. He is the best known and oldest dealer in Greater Oakland.
